Presentation to Rev. Father Hauck. Presertation to Rev. Father Hauck. The business men of Markdale were well represented in the presentation to Rev. Father Hauck on the eve of his departure from Mark-dale of a gold-headed black ebony cane and about twenty felicitous verbai addresses. The Rev. Father, always cherry and genial, folt a deep sense of sadness on severing his connection with the many strong social ties here. He had made himself singularly prou-lar as a citizen, and his departure is the cause of universal regret. – Markdale Standard, Nov, 26

DANIEL DURACK, OSCEOLA. As the Cycle of Time passes on we are called upon to chronicle the death of one from our mids. This time we announce the death of one of the most respected residents of Con-naught settlement, Horfrew Co., in the per-son of Daniel Durack, which sade event occurred at his home on Monday evening, Nev 23.d. For the last eight months Mr. Durack had been gradually failing in health and it was with the deepest egreis that the members of his family as well as hosts of friends took noto of the gradual weakening which disease was making on the once healthy frame, but skill and tender nursing were of no avail as the hand of Death seemed to have rested upon him During his liness he was constantly visited

Devine was ever altentive in visiting of his death administered to him the last ribes of the Church, which is such a source of com-fort to the dying Catholic. On Monday evening he knew his life on earth was soon to close, and he called his family to his define to hear his last words and receive his dying blessing, and though asd indeed was the parting with his beloved wife and family he was fully resigned to the will of God and his thoughts seemed to say : When the dumb hour clothed in black

Mr. Durack was a man of kind disposition, a good neighbor ever ready to lend a helpirg hand, and many are the regrets at his removal from our midst.
