A Song of Yesterday.

Where are the roses of yesterday's bloom? Sweet fragrance fled, Fair petals scattered—O piteous doom!

HUMOROUS.

A smart scholar had this question put to him by an inspector. Well, my boy, do you know what 'syntax' means?

A henpecked husband said, in exaltation of a wife's raids upon his scalp: "You see, she takes her own hair off so easily she doesn't know how it hurts to have mine pulled out."

"If you were a decent person," remarked a shrill female voice on the railway, "you would shut down that window and not expose me to the draft."

When the triangle had called the meeting to order, Bro. Carver rose with his usual checkered suit, "Gentlemen, if it wasn't for the wheels of a waggin de waggin wouldn't move. When de wheels an on, den what? "Grease!" solemnly exclaimed Bro. Jackson.

The Boy whose Mother Cuts His Hair.

You can always tell a boy whose mother cuts his hair. Not because the edges of it look as if it had been chewed off by an absent-minded horse, but you tell it by the way he stops on the street and wriggle his shoulders.

When she is through, she holds his jacket collar back from his neck, and with her mouth blows the short bits of hair from the top of his head down to his feet.

Sweet Consciousness of Duty Performed.

The other day, over at the Alameda baths, a timid and retiring looking man waited until the superintendent was disengaged and then said to him: "I do hate to give anyone trouble, but have you a long stick or pole of any kind you could lend me?"

INDIGESTION & DEBILITY.

It is more strengthening than Cod Liver Oil or any other preparation. It assimilates the food to the blood, purifying and strengthening it.

TESTIMONIAL.

I have been an inveterate stammerer for 40 years. I am now 45 years old. I never saw a worse stammerer than I was. I have tried all sorts of cures, but without success, until Tuesday last, I placed myself under Professor Sutherland's treatment, and now, after only two days' treatment, I am entirely cured. I can now talk and read with perfect ease, and I know that I will never stammer again. My address is Delaware P. O., Ont.
