

J. COLLIS BROWNE'S LORODYNE.

ILLUSTRATED LONDON NEWS of Sept. 25, 1895, says: 'The Lorodyne is the most powerful medicine ever made for the cure of Cholera, Dysentery, and all other ailments of the bowels...'

HANCE FOR THE BOYS.

Superintendent of one of the largest corporations in Canada, Montreal, offers to employ all ALE STENOGRAPHERS who graduated from the Dominion Day at Camp Sussex.

W. J. OSBORNE.

Principals, Fredericton, N. B. Summer Vacation this year. Demand for proficient bookkeepers and stenographers surpasses all we ever known in our long experience.

NOTICE OF SALE.

Charles E. Penningly, Herbert H. Hilly, and all other heirs of Robert Penningly, and to George S. Penningly, all others to whom it may come, hereby give notice that they have decided to sell the premises situated at the corner of the City of St. John and Province of New Brunswick, in the County of St. John and Province of New Brunswick, in the City of St. John, in the County of St. John and Province of New Brunswick.

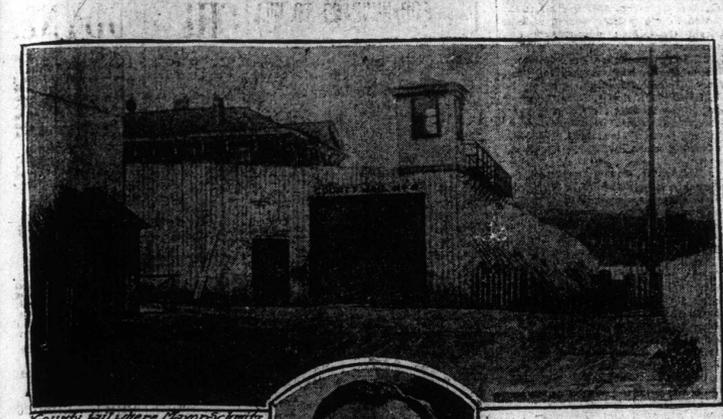

G. FREDERICK FISHER.

Assignee of said Mortgage. LANTALUM. 21-63 mob.

JOHN ALLAN DALE.

The famous author. HAS A CORN ANY ROOTS? It is cured by... 'Yes, by applying Dale's Corn Extractor. It is a pleasant and invariably satisfactory cure on only Putnam's.'

SAN FRANCISCO'S NEW MAYOR AND THE JAIL WHERE HIS PREDECESSOR IS IN BONDAGE.

DOMINION DAY AT CAMP SUSSEX.

Weather Disagreeable But Event Was Celebrated. Afternoon Parade in Spirit of the Rain. Two Men Fainted on Parade. Number of Visitors Small.

S. DOW SIMMONS TO BE MARRIED IN THE WEST.

FREDERICTON, N. B., July 1.—Tonight at the Queen Hotel a number of friends of S. Dow Simmons entertained him with a number of pieces of silverware. Mr. Simmons leaves tomorrow for Greenwood, B. C., where he is to be married to Miss Millie, daughter of James Pickard of Gibson.

HAZLETT FAMILY HAD REUNION.

(Monday's Sun.) A reunion of the Hazlett family took place yesterday at the old homestead at Whitehead. The occasion of the reunion was in honor of Samuel Hazlett of Wisconsin, who is paying his relatives a visit after a long absence.

HAD BOTTLE FROM TRURO DRUGGIST.

PORTLAND, July 1.—Aster McNutt, 65 years of age, was taken suddenly sick at a local hotel, and died later in the hospital. He complained of being sick when he registered. On his person was found the address of Mrs. Abner McNutt, 174 Springfield street, Boston. He had a small bottle of medicine with the label of a druggist in Truro, N. S., on it and was dated only two days ago.

WORKMAN HAD LEG BROKEN BY CAVE-IN.

MONCTON, N. B., June 28.—Caught beneath a cave-in of earth, Matthew Colburn was buried in the excavation at the new fire station this morning, and had his right leg broken near the ankle. The earth fell at his while he was working and he was completely buried beneath the avalanche of two hundred pounds of clay.

CASTORIA.

The kind you have always bought. Bears the Signature of Dr. A. H. Weston.

STR. SENLAC WRECKED BY RED CROSS LINER.

Neariy Cut In Two in Halifax Harbor by S. S. Rosalind. Accident Happened During Thick Fog Last Night. Senlac Towed Ashore With Decks Awash. Many Passengers on the Rosalind Much Confusion Caused by Crash.

TWO GRANVILLE MEN DROWNED.

Were Trying to Hoist Sail in a Small Boat. Breth Married and Leave Several Children—C. P. R. Clerk Drowned—Brekeman Killed at Glouce Bay.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

HARTLAND, N. B., June 29.—The motor drive passed here today. The river has raised several feet and it is said that every stick of lumber will be safe to the booms.

W. C. R. BRAKEMAN FELL FROM TRAIN AND WAS KILLED.

MONCTON, N. B., June 29.—Owen Doyle of this city, brakeman of the Maritime express, Moncton-bound, was killed about two and a half miles north of Newcastle yesterday morning. The body being found by sectionsmen lying beside the track. No one saw the accident, but trainmen believe that in opening the vestibules, Brakeman Doyle was thrown from the car by a ruck and killed by the train, and fell. He was not missed until after the train arrived here.

WORKMAN HAD LEG BROKEN BY CAVE-IN.

MONCTON, June 28.—Caught beneath a cave-in of earth, Matthew Colburn was buried in the excavation at the new fire station this morning, and had his right leg broken near the ankle. The earth fell at his while he was working and he was completely buried beneath the avalanche of two hundred pounds of clay.

CASTORIA.

The kind you have always bought. Bears the Signature of Dr. A. H. Weston.

INTEREST IN ITS WELFARE AND AS ORGANIST AND CHOIR LEADER WAS OF GREAT ASSISTANCE IN THE MUSIC.

The Sunday school convention for Restigouche and Bonaventure will meet in Campbellton Monday evening, July 1st. Two addresses will be given, one by Rev. Gordon Dickie, B. D., of St. Stephen church, St. John, who will take the place of Rev. J. B. Ganong, the field secretary, who is at Rome attending the International Sunday School Convention, and the second address will be given by Rev. F. J. Stachhouse, B. D., of St. Andrew's church, St. John.

INTEREST IN ITS WELFARE AND AS ORGANIST AND CHOIR LEADER WAS OF GREAT ASSISTANCE IN THE MUSIC.

The closing exercises in connection with the Campbellton High School took place on Friday morning. The graduating class was four in number, as follows: Jessie Moore, Adella Currie, Mary Starrat, Charles McLean. A programme was carried out, with Miss Harper, Miss Wolfe, Miss Sadie Fawcett, Miss Mary Richards and Prof. Williamson. Addresses were made by Judge McFarther, Mayor Murray, chairman of the school board. The essays, which were exceptionally good, were read by the members of the graduating class, and the diplomas were presented by Mayor Murray.

INTEREST IN ITS WELFARE AND AS ORGANIST AND CHOIR LEADER WAS OF GREAT ASSISTANCE IN THE MUSIC.

On Monday evening the young ladies' class of the Baptist church presented their teacher, W. W. Starrat, with a splendid teacher's Bible, which was accompanied by a very appreciative address. The presentation was made at his home and a very pleasant evening was spent.

INTEREST IN ITS WELFARE AND AS ORGANIST AND CHOIR LEADER WAS OF GREAT ASSISTANCE IN THE MUSIC.

A runaway accident occurred on Monday evening while Messrs. John Andrew, Alex. Pineau, Edward Young and Chas. Purvis were driving down on Miller's Mill. Their horse became frightened at an automobile driven by Dr. Sorensen. All four men were thrown from the carriage. The horse was finally captured at the roundhouse and was quite seriously injured. The wagon was also badly damaged.

INTEREST IN ITS WELFARE AND AS ORGANIST AND CHOIR LEADER WAS OF GREAT ASSISTANCE IN THE MUSIC.

The funeral of G. M. Ryan, formerly superintendent of the railway, was held at the residence of his wife, Mrs. Ryan, on Wednesday, June 23rd. The funeral was largely attended, and was held in the presence of many of the members of the various societies to which he belonged, including the Orangemen and Railway Brotherhood. The floral tributes were beautiful, among them being wreaths from the Commercial Travellers, with whom the deceased was a favorite.

INTEREST IN ITS WELFARE AND AS ORGANIST AND CHOIR LEADER WAS OF GREAT ASSISTANCE IN THE MUSIC.

The funeral of G. M. Ryan, formerly superintendent of the railway, was held at the residence of his wife, Mrs. Ryan, on Wednesday, June 23rd. The funeral was largely attended, and was held in the presence of many of the members of the various societies to which he belonged, including the Orangemen and Railway Brotherhood. The floral tributes were beautiful, among them being wreaths from the Commercial Travellers, with whom the deceased was a favorite.

CORNER STONE Laid.

SYDNEY, N. S., July 1.—One of the events of Dominion Day was laying the corner stone of St. James Presbyterian church, ward 5, which is to replace the building destroyed by fire on July 23, last year. Ceremony of laying the corner stone was performed by Moderator Rev. C. C. Mcintosh, in presence of a large congregation.