Visiting Canning at the Parker Hall on Wednesday next, Miss Madge Locke—that very clever singer and dancer from Boston and New York and her company of 20 Beautiful Girls will produce their fairy play, "The old woman who lived in a shoe. This is one beautifully staged and costumed playlet and the singing of these bright charming girls and dancing is superb. Miss Madge Locke herself is one of the greatest dancers before the public and her costumes are from the Broadway, and really magnificent. She also does Highland dancing in the native costume and sings the songs of Scotland in grand style.

Danny Farrell—the boneless man is one of the wonders of the age and everyone should see his wonderful feats. Tickets should be secured early as his is sure to be a rush on this very excellent entertainment Wednesday next.

OBITUARY

T. L. Rogers

The community of Blomidon was saddened on Friday morning, July 14, when was circulated the news of the sudden death of Thomas Lemuel Rogers who fell dead of heart failure at the age of seventy-seven. Rev. R. S. Meadows conducted the funeral service on Sunday, when a large number gathered to show their esteem for the departed neighbor and friend. His body was interred in the Scotts Bay Cemetery in the hope of eternal life through the Redeemer. The deceased was a man of truth and unrighteousness, ever willing and ready to help the cause of humanity. Besides his wife he leaves 6 sons and 6 daughters to cherish his memory. His surviving brothers are James E. Rogers of Scotts Bay, Alexander Rogers of Roslingdale, Mass. Five of his children reside in the vicinity of Canning, two at Blomidon, one at Sheffield Mills, one at Clearwater, Manitoba, one at East Weymouth, Mass. two in Golden Colorado. He also leaves forty-six Grandchildren and five Great Grand-

Singing Tone

There is a lyric tone to the Heintzman Piano that even a careless touch cannot conceal. Hearing this piano, you know at once that it stands head and shoulders above flung-together imitations — It is emphatically the master piano.

Superb Appearance

As pleasing to the eye as its tone is to the ear is the beauty of the Heintzman Piano. Made of thoroughly seasoned laminated wood, its splendid materials are best fitted to bring out and be worthy of the Piano's noble tone.
