Brockville's Greatest Store.

An Important Sale of LINENS

This is without doubt the greatest achievement in linens this store has ever made. Every yard of linen offered—Every table napkin—every tray cloth, is absolutely new and high grade, and every bit of it is as much under price as if we were selling out old goods or had purchased a bankrupt stock. Most of the big purchase has some imperfection—hardly noticeable and easily fixed, yet enough to make the manufacturer reject them as perfect and sell the lot at a big sacrifice. Now be wise—they'll go fast. Come first and get the choice lots. Remember these are all choice high grade goods.

Be First to Profit by this Grand Opportunity

FRYE—BROWN

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Brown, near Addison, was fragrant with festoons and flowers on Wednesday evening, Sept. 4, their daughter, Miss Annie M. being united in marriage to Mr. William J. Frye, of Soper-ton, beneath an elegant arch. The wedding march was rendered by Miss Zelta Frye. Little Mary Brown acted as flower-girl. The bride entered on her father's arm, and her uncle Rev. W. Henderson, Frankville, officiated, assisted by Rev. C. J. Curtis of Addison. The guests were entertained with a delicious supper and congratulatory addresses by the ministers. Presents were valuable. The bridal dress was of Cream Crepe de Chine, with bridal veil, Travelling costume was of blue broadcloth and white hat.

The bridal party proceeded direct to Toronto, Niagara, etc. This is the third marriage in two years in Mr. Brown's family.

A Damage Action

Recorder: The plaintiff in the case of Sufel vs. Brown, an action for damages for personal injuries sustained, which has been set down for hearing at next assizes, was ordered to-day to undergo medical examination before a local physician and this afternoon was examined for discovery before the local clerk of the high court. The plaintiff is Mrs. E. J. Sufel, of Lansdowne Rear, and alleges that while in the store of the defendant, Omar Brown, at Delta, on December 19th last, she accidentally fell through a trap door which had been left open and landed in the cellar. She was about to examine some goods for purchase when the accident occurred.

Flood—Healey

Miss Theresa Healey of Kitley and P. Flood, of McIntosh Mills were united in marriage on Tuesday of last week, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Father Hanley in the R.C. church, Toledo. The bride wore a costume of white crepe de chene. She was assisted by her sister Miss Rose Healey, while John Flood supported the groom. The young couple have gone to Toronto for a wedding trip.

Will It be Built?

As to the Kingston, Smith's Falls and Ottawa railway, the Smith's Falls News is informed that negotiations are now pretty well perfected whereby this long deferred line will be built, and that it is to be taken over by a wealthy and established railroad corporation. A deputation will visit Smith's Falls in the near future, and then the particulars will be given the public.

Dozen Dairy Districts

The next convention of the Eastern Ontario Dairywomen's Association will be held in Ottawa early in January. A committee of the association will divide the eastern portion of Ontario into 12 dairy districts instead of 6 as heretofore. This will mean that each district will have one representative on the board of the association. It was also decided to hold local dairy meetings in each of these districts, and the representatives of the district will be responsible for arranging the preliminaries for these meetings.

What Women Will Wear this Winter

Discussing suitable costumes for business women in The New IDEA WOMAN'S MAGAZINE for October, the writer of the article remarks: The reaction to very dark colors which distinguishes this season from its several predecessors will have the full approval of all those women who have to consider the practical before all else. It may be said, however, that in spite of the profusion of lace and furbelows lavished on summer styles, there always is an undercurrent of simplicity and sensibility sought by the conservative element, to which in great measure the best business women belong. Not only deep navy blues, ruby shades of red, and the old-fashioned bottle greens which are being revived, but black in combination with myrtle green and autumn colors produce effects which are in keeping with the sober color scheme. Among the mannish suitings there are many unobtrusive stripes which are very attractive, and have almost superseded the checked materials in popularity. The plaids are also very dark, the newest ones showing a combination of brown and bronze greens. One characteristic of the novelty plaid materials is a satin stripe, generally in the back, which recurs regularly in the pattern. The separate plaid skirt, particularly in the shadow plaids, is a feature of the season. It is invariably accompanied by a waist of the predominating shade in the plaid.

The Renewal a Strain

Vacation is over. Again the school bell rings at morning and at noon, again with tens of thousands the hardest kind of work begun, the renewal of which is a mental and physical strain to all except the most rugged. The little girl that a few days ago had roses in her cheeks, and the little boy whose lips were then so red you would have insisted that they had been "kissed by strawberries," have already lost something of the appearance of health. Now is a time when many children should be given a tonic, which may avert much serious trouble, and we know of no other so highly to be recommended as Hood's Sarsaparilla, which strengthens the nerves, perfects digestion and assimilation, and aids mental development by building up the whole system.

Officers Elected

At a meeting of the W. M. S., held at the home of Mrs. G. W. Beach on Thursday last, in honor of the silver anniversary of the society, the following officers were elected:—

President—Mrs. S. J. Hughes; 1st vice-president, Mrs. I. C. Alguire; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. S. S. Cornell; recording secretary, Miss D. Klyne; corresponding secy., Mrs. E. S. Clow; treasurer, Mrs. A. Kendrick; superintendent of systematic giving, Mrs. J. H. Ackland; president of Mission Band, Mrs. G. W. Beach; vice president, Mrs. D. Fisher.

Spare the Rod

The question of just what a person may legally do to an orchard thief, caught in the act, is often asked, and the following paragraph from the Arnprior Chronicle gives light on the subject:—

An Elgin street citizen, who handed out a few aches and pains to a boy whom he caught in his orchard, appeared before the police magistrate on Saturday. A great deal of evidence was heard, and both the defendant and the one prosecuting were represented by counsel. The audience was a large one, and many boys were present—presumably to learn to what extent the owner of the apple orchard is justified on occasions in taking the law into his own hands. A fine of $8 and costs was imposed. A trespass charge was preferred against the boy, resulting in his being mulcted in $2 and costs.

The Haunt of Big Game

The northern part of the Province of Ontario is the mecca for the sportsman and hunter. Deer and moose abound in several districts that are reached by the Grand Trunk Railway System including "Musokoka," "Lake of Bays," "Maganetowan River," "Lake Nipissing," "French River," "Temegami," "Georgian Bay," and several points on the Ottawa Division, between Scott's Jet and Algoma Park. Last year nearly 12,000 deer and 300 moose were taken out of this territory and from reports received this year, the supply is as great as ever. All hunting districts easy of access. Full particulars in "Haunts of Fish and Game," an illustrated publication giving all information, game laws, etc., sent free, on application to J. Quinlan, District Passenger Agent, Bonaventure Station, Montreal.

The Man Behind

In almost every newspaper you pick up you are pretty sure to find a lot of gush about the man behind the counter and the man behind the gun, man behind the buzzaw and the man behind the sun, the times and the man behind his rents, the man behind the ploughshare and the man behind the fence, the man behind the kodak and the man behind the bars, the man behind his whiskers and the man behind his fist, and everything is entered on the list. But they've skipped another fellow, of whom nothing can be said—the fellow who is even or a little way ahead, who pays for all he gets, whose bills are always signed. He's a blamed sight more important than the man who is behind. All the editors and merchants and the whole commercial clan are indebted far existence to this honest fellow man. He keeps us all in business, and his town is never dead, so we all take off our hats to the man who is ahead.
