FIGHT IN ETON'S.

Prisoner Arrested For Theft Was Determined to Escape.

Toronto, June 2.—After being frustrated in two strenuous attempts to escape the hands of the law, William Wilcox, of Port Credit, was landed in a police cell yesterday afternoon.

Wilcox was caught in the store of the Queen street entrance. Before he reached the door, however, his headlight light was suddenly stopped by a floor-walker, who imposed his body in the way, and Murray, who was following closely, again took charge of him. As he was being taken across James street to detective headquarters by the City Hall Wilcox made another attempt to get away. The detective was on his guard this time, however, and after a sharp struggle subdued his man. Wilcox made no further effort to escape.

MONTREAL CONFERENCE.

First Draft of Stations Will be Ready To-day.

Pemroke, Ont., June 1.—The Stationing Committee of the Montreal Methodist Conference have been at work all day, but hardly expect their first draft to be ready before Wednesday morning. It is thought that the conference will on Friday morning elect an Ottawa Valley man as President, and many of the delegates expect to see Rev. Wm. Philp, of Annapolis, selected.

Rev. W. J. Hunter, of the Toronto Conference, formerly of Hamilton, a retired minister, who has filled the McLeod Street Church pulpit, Ottawa, temporarily for the past year, will return to Toronto. Rev. Mr. Peever, of Coaticook, Que., has been invited to fill the vacancy, and it is practically settled will go to Ottawa.

The Dr. Workman case, the question of church union and whether Methodists should rest promises to these conducting a bar-room, or benefiting financially from the same, brought up by Kingston delegates, are some of the more important issues likely to be up.

A Bumper Crop in West.

Winning, June 1.—"I believe from present prospects that the west is sure to reap a bumper crop this year," said Lieutenant-Governor Bulyea, who arrived from Edmonton to-day, delighted with what he had seen of the country. Everywhere, he says, the fields are waving green, and the growth is remarkable. The condition of winter wheat is most satisfactory.

Rev. E. C. Earp, for three years curate at St. Paul's Anglican Church, Toronto, was presented by the congregation and church organization with an address and purse of gold. Rev. Mr. Earp has been appointed rector of Danville.

TRUE BILL In Criminal Libel Suit Brought by Sir F. Borden. Defence Alleged to Have Some Witnesses Ready.

Kentville, N. S., June 1.—The action for criminal libel brought against Walter M. Carruthers, of Kentville, at the instance of Sir Frederick Borden came before Mr. Justice Drysdale at the opening of the court to-day. The grand jury found a true bill.

There have been several surprises since the court opened. The first of these was when it became known this morning that Mrs. Maria Allison, of Ottawa, whose name has been frequently mentioned by a western paper and used in connection with the libel suit, had been here for a week and would take the stand to-morrow on behalf of the defence, though not half a dozen persons knew of her presence in town till to-day. She came in response to a summons issued from Halifax, and lived at the house of a prominent citizen in close retirement.

There was another surprise to-night when L. P. A. Chalifour, of Fraserville, Que., a nephew of Mrs. Allison and a cousin of her daughter, Hestia Chalifour, stepped from the train. He will also take the stand for the defence. Miss Chalifour's name has frequently been mentioned in connection with this case.

Sir Frederick Borden is not here, but his absence does not detract from the interest manifested in this trial. It is said to-night that the prosecution will endeavor to secure a change of venue and have the trial set down for Annapolis two weeks later. Such a postponement would be very awkward for Mrs. Allison and her nephew, who have come so far and at great expense. Whether they would remain or not is a grave question. If the trial goes on they will be the star witnesses.

Mr. Justice Drysdale, in his address to the grand jury, told them that the allegations in the letters by Mrs. Allison were clearly defamatory and libellous. He quoted fully from the letters in illustrating his opinion.

IS GROWING.

Trinity Luther League is Progressive Organization.

Trinity Luther League filled the Lay parlors, 512 York street, last evening at a very interesting and enthusiastic monthly business and social meeting. Two new members were received, bringing the active membership to 32. President John Uhrig was in the chair. Interesting reports of the recent Canada Luther League convention in Toronto were given by Messrs. Fred Osterber, Elliott Fess and Harry Slumkowski. Miss Clara Gibb and Miss Evelyn Meinke pleased all by their excellent recitations. The League decided to place the Luther League Review, a monthly periodical, on the shelves of the City Public Library, and of the Central Y. M. C. A. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. Paulsen, 391 Wilson street, on July 6th.

The Canada Luther League had an enthusiastic convention in Toronto last week. It discussed "Luther League Development" and "Men for the Ministry" and in the evening listened to an eloquent address from the Rev. F. A. Kahlu, D. D., Buffalo, on "Witness Bearing." The Rev. J. A. Miller, of Galt, was re-elected President. The local League was well represented and became a member of the Dominion League. The next meeting will be held in Morrisburg on May 24, 1910.

Queen Entertains Orphans.

Rome, June 1.—On the invitation of Queen Helena, 300 children, who were made orphans by the earthquake in Sicily and Calabria, to-day attended a garden party given in the grounds of the Quirinal in honor of the eighth birthday of Princess Yolanda. The children were conveyed to the palace in state carriages. They were given toys and sweets and were entertained with games.

The approval extended Alice Lloyd, the great English comedienne, who headlines the Bennett bill this week, and who is more than upholding her reputation for a sensational hit, reaches its climax in her newest novelty, "audience" song, "I'm Looking for the Loveliest in Your Eyes." The "Loveliest" number justifies the tribute of a well-known New York critic, who declared it to be the "crack" audience song, casting all others in the shade. A brilliant light effect in a darkened house is obtained through the manipulation of side "spots" and a hand mirror. This selection scores so roundly with the Bennett patrons that nothing could apparently follow it, still Miss Lloyd continues on her successful way with "Who Are You Getting At, Eh?" and another. Her opening selection, "Over the Hills and Far Away," a brand new selection, has a pretty melody, with a semi-comic lyric. Her closing number is an old favorite, which tells of the troubles of a coster girl who introduced her "babe to a lady friend."

There is a delicious characterization in all Miss Lloyd's numbers that appeals forcibly to the audience. She is easily the greatest star and the finest vaudeville artist ever seen in Hamilton, and it is pleasing to note that the splendid bill she heads is appreciated by the theatregoing public and receiving the patronage it so richly merits. Yesterday afternoon the ladies who attended the matinee were presented with Miss Lloyd's photo. This afternoon roses were distributed and on Friday afternoon the souvenirs will be Miss Lloyd's photo. The entire bill is well worth seeing. The McNaughtons, English patter comedians, and the Jap act, in which some remarkable work is done on a stage, elaborately set with oriental scenery, are two big features. It is difficult to recall any laugh-provoking feature as worthy of the title as the McNaughtons. They are a genuinely funny team.

MR. HEWLETT'S PUPILS. An unusually large audience filled to overflowing the recital hall of the Conservatory last evening to hear the musical programme presented by a few of Mr. W. H. Hewlett's senior piano pupils. They were assisted by the Misses Laura Dressel, Jessie Oaks and Blackley, who largely helped to make the recital a most enjoyable one. Although very many different styles and temperaments were shown in the rendition of the music, each number was well played, and reflected great credit to both Mr. Hewlett and the pupils. Most of the works were played without the music. The programme was: Sonata in F major, Op. 27, No. 2 (Allegro-Andante Molto-Rondo). Miss Edna Bowers.

Second piano part, arranged by Eduard Greig. Mr. W. H. Hewlett. Song—(a) An Indian Love Song. (b) Was It You? (c) Wilbey. Miss Laura L. Dressel. (Pupil of Howard Massey Frederick.) Miss Emily Burns. Mr. W. H. Hewlett at the second piano. MISSION CIRCLE ENTERTAINMENT. The entertainment given by the Emerald Street Mission Circle in the church last evening, under the direction of Miss Amy L. Doty, of London, proved a success and a large number of the members and friends turned out to enjoy the excellent programme. All those taking part acquitted themselves well, and the numbers were loudly applauded. The programme was as follows: Chorus—Look Above the Clouds. 90 Scholars. Address of Welcome. 8 Boys. Solo and Chorus—Katy Did. Marjorie Pett and 40 Scholars. Recitation—The Methodist Way. Viola Gibson. Chorus—Disobedient Chickens. 40 Scholars. Dialogue—Member. 5 Boys. HOWARD PUPILS' RECITALS. The pupils of F. M. and E. M. Howard gave a recital at Mr. Howard's studio last evening. The programme was varied, and held the enthusiasm of the audience throughout, although the accommodation was inadequate. Fred Hayward and a Reginald Dennis were the favorites again, as on previous occasions. These young men have the snap and vigor, coupled with the delicate touch and artistic conception, that stamp them as exceptional musicians. Miss Klienstebler and Stuart Moore also played remarkably well. Miss Ethel Ross, soprano, was the star of the evening, and was warmly received. The programme was: Piano duet—Faust Valse. Gounod. Misses Stedman and Campbell. Violin—Simple Avenir. Thome. Miss M. O'Hara. Piano—Juana. Richard. Piano—Pure as Snow. Lange. Violin—Air Vire. Duncela. H. Newman. Piano—Etude. Wollenhaupt.
