YOUNG MARINER ON NEW ENGLAND COAST

Harold Delaney, Aged 13 Steered Vessel Through the Storm

At the age of thirteen years, Harold Delaney, of Allston, has qualified as one of the youngest mariners on the New England coast. During a terrible gale last week he stood lashed to the wheel of the two-masted schooner Robert Pettis, and steered her safely through the storm.

"He's the nerviest little fellow in the world," declared Captain Nutter, when the vessel arrived from Tusket, N. S.

"The mate had to be sent ashore for hospital treatment at a Maine port, and only the boy and I remained aboard. When the storm broke, I had to leave the wheel to shorten sail. The boy took his place, and though great seas repeatedly dashed over him, he worked the craft along with the skill of an old skipper."

BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Baby's Own Tablets are the best medicine a mother can give her little ones. They are absolutely safe, being guaranteed by a government analyst to contain neither opiates, narcotics or other harmful drugs. They are good for all children from the newborn babe to the growing child. They cure constipation, indigestion, expel worms, break up colds and make teething easy. In fact they are a cure for all the minor ills of little ones and a box should always be kept in the house as a safeguard against sudden attacks of stomach or bowel troubles. Mrs. J. P. Richard, St. Norbert, N. B., says: "I have found Baby's Own Tablets all that is claimed for them. My baby suffered from his stomach and bowels and the Tablets certainly did him good." YOUNG-ADAMS COMPANY

The Young-Adams Co. opened their week's engagement at the Opera House Monday night, and put on as their opening bill "Under the Bear's Paw" a very interesting and powerful three-act Russian drama. The play shows the severity of the punishment meted out to spies should they be caught. Marjole Adams as Bessie Grey, a governess in the apartments of General Omeroff, secures plans of the Russian fort and makes an unsuccessful attempt to secure others, when she is caught by the man who loves her, Capt. Radloff. Her Capt. lover cannot shield her and she is brought before the General. Bessie Grey is an American, and so confident she is of the power of the stars and stripes she defies the Russian government to put her to torture. Her defiance, however, avails her nothing even though she has the knowledge that an American flag is in the harbor. Her Capt. lover risks his own life to protect her and just when things look bad for him, Colonel Boris, who is a friend to both, suggests to the General that in order to save the life of Capt. Radloff, who was one of their best soldiers, that he sanction the marriage of the Capt. to Bessie Grey, thereby saving his life and also hers by making her by this marriage, a Russian subject. The other ladies in the cast, Marie Le Clair, as Baroness Dashoff, and Miss Hazel Stevenson, as Princess Petrosky, were well received by the audience. The specialties were also exceedingly good.

"Queen of the Ranch" was put on last night and was greeted by a large and appreciative audience. The different characters were well presented and the Young-Adams Co. are still holding their popularity with Newcastle play-goers. To-night their strong play "St. Elmo" will be put on and should draw a good house.
