The Scott Act has not been fully re spected here, and the temperance people have been taking steps for a strict en-forcement. Search warrants were issued on Tuesday last, and the hotels of Mrs. O'Neill and T. Hall were simultaneously visited by constables. In the former place a keg of lager was found, and in Hall's hotel about $50 worth of liquors was captured. Four charges have been laid against Mrs. O'Neill and two against Hall. The case will be tried on Friday (today) before magistrates P. Thompson, of Brussels, and John Beattie, of Seaforth. If these prosecutions are sustain-ed, it is believed that illicit liquor selling will be knocked out in the first round in this place.
