THE CROWNING OF THEIR MAJESTIES.

unity of the Holy Spirit, world without end. Amen.

This prayer being ended, the Queen shall arise and come to the place of her anointing; which is to be at a table set for that purpose before the Altar, between the steps and King Edward's Chair. There shall she kneel down, and four Peers, appointed for that service, holding a rich pall of cloth of gold over her the Archbishop shall pour the holy oil upon the Crown of her head, saying these words:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Let the anointing with this Oil increase your honor, and the grace of God's Holy Spirit establish you, for ever and ever. Amen.

Then shall the Archbishop receive from the Keeper of the Jewel House the Queen's Ring, and put it upon the fourth finger of her right hand, saying:

RECEIVE this Ring, the seal of a sincere faith; and God, to whom be-liege all power and dignity, prosper you in this your honor, and grant you therein long to continue, fearing him always, and always doing such things as shall please him through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then the Archbishop shall take the Crown from off the Altar into his hands, and reverently set it upon the Queen's head, saying:

RECEIVE the Crown of glory, honor, and joy; And God, the crown of the faithful, who by our Episcopal hands (though unworthy) doth this day set a crown of pure gold upon your head, enrich your royal heart with His abundant grace, and crown you with all princely virtues in this life, and with everlasting gladness in the life that is to come, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Queen being crowned all the Peers shall put on their Coronets.

Then shall the Archbishop put the Sceptre into the Queen's right hand, and the Ivory Rod, with the Dove into her left hand; and say this prayer:

O LORD, the giver of all perfection: Grant unto this thy servant MARY our Queen, that by her powerful and holy influence of her piety and virtue, she may adorn the high dignity which she hath obtained, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Queen being thus anointed, and ornaments, shall arise and go from the Altar, supported by her two Bishops, and so up to the theatre of her throne, she shall bow herself reverently to His Majesty, and then be conducted to her own throne and without any further ceremony take her place in it.

XVIII.
THE COMMUNION.
Then shall the organ play and the choir sing the Offertory.
O HEARKEN, my King and my God: for unto Thee I will make my prayer.
In the meanwhile the King and Queen shall deliver the Royal Proclamation to the Lords who had previously borne them, and descend from their thrones, supported and attended as before; and so to the altar of the Altar, where taking off their Crowns, which they shall deliver to the Lord Great Chamberlain and other appointed Officers to hold, they shall kneel down.

by the Archbishop he received from the King, and reverently placed upon the Altar, and decently covered with a fair linen cloth, the Archbishop first saying this prayer: Bless, O Lord, we beseech thee, these thy gifts, and sanctify them unto this holy use, that by them we may be made partakers of the Body and Blood of thine only begotten Son Jesus Christ, and fed unto everlasting life of soul and body: And that thy servant King GEORGE may be enabled to the discharge of his weighty office, whereunto of thy great goodness thou hast called and appointed him. Grant this, O Lord, for Jesus Christ's sake, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

Then the King kneeling, as before, shall make his Oblation, offering a Pall or Altar-cloth delivered by the Officer of the Great Wardrobe to the Lord Great Chamberlain, and by him, kneeling, to His Majesty, and an ingot or Wedge of Gold of a pound weight, which the Treasurer of the Household shall deliver to the Lord Great Chamberlain, and he to His Majesty; and the Archbishop coming to him, shall receive and place them upon the Altar.

The Queen also at the same time shall make her Oblation of a Pall or Altar-cloth, and a mark weight of Gold, in like manner as the King.
Then shall the King and Queen return to their chairs, and kneel down at their falstools, and the Archbishop shall say:

Let us pray for the whole state of Christ's Church militant here in earth.
Prayer for the Church Militant.
The Exhortation.
The General Confession.
The Absolution.
After which shall be said The Comfortable Words and Responses.

Then shall the Archbishop turn to the Lord's Table, and say: It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, Holy Father, Almighty, Everlasting God: who by Thy providence dost govern all things both in Heaven and in earth, and hast shewn mercy this day to these three anointed servants, our King and our Queen, and hast given them to us thy people that under them we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all god-liness and honesty.

Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of Heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name: evermore praising thee, and adoring thee, saying: Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of hosts, heaven and earth are full of thy glory; Glory be to thee, O Lord most high. Amen.

The Prayer of Humble Access.
THE PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.
When the Archbishop, and Dean of Westminster, with the Bishop's Assistants (namely, the Preacher and those who have read the Litany, the Epistle and the Gospel), have communicated in both kinds, the King and Queen shall advance to the steps of the Altar and kneel down, and the Archbishop shall administer the Bread, and the Dean of Westminster the Cup to them.

The King and Queen shall then put on their Crowns, and taking the Sceptres in their hands again, repair to their Thrones.
Then shall the Archbishop go on to the Post-Communion.

Then shall the Archbishop say, The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord. And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you and remain with you always. Amen.

XIX.
Then shall the Choir sing:
TE DEUM LAUDAMUS.
XX.
THE RECESS.
In the meantime, the King attended and accompanied as before, the four Swords being carried before him, shall descend from his throne crowned, and, carrying his Sceptre and Rod in his hands, go into the area eastward of the Theatre, and pass through the door on the South side of the Altar into Saint Edward's Chapel; and as they pass by the Altar, the rest of the Regis-tary upon it, are to be delivered by the Dean of Westminster to the Lords that carried them in the procession, and so they shall re-ceed in state into the Chapel. The Queen at the same time descending shall go in like manner into the same Chapel at the door on the North side of the Altar; hearing her Sceptre in her right hand, and her Ivory Rod in her left.

The King and Queen being come into the Chapel, the King, standing before the Altar, shall deliver the Sceptre with the Dove to the Archbishop, who shall lay it upon the Altar there. And the golden Spurs and Saint Edward's Staff are to be given into the hands of the Dean of Westminster, and by him laid there also.

The King shall then be disrobed of his Royal Robe of State, and arrayed in his Robe of purple velvet, and wearing his Imperial Crown shall then receive in his left hand the Orb from the Archbishop.
Then their Majesties shall proceed through the Choir to the West door of the Church, in the same way as they came, wearing their Crowns; the King bearing in his right hand the Sceptre with the Cross, and in his left hand the Orb; the Queen bearing in her right hand her Sceptre with the Cross, and in her left hand the Ivory Rod with the Dove; all Peers wearing their Coronets.

Tells Others His Secret

Wants them to know how he was cured of itching, protruding piles—by DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT.
Doctors usually recommend the knife as the only cure for piles. They overlook the risk, the expense and the suffering of mind and body entailed in a surgical operation. Dr. Chase's Ointment will bring relief quickly and will cure thoroughly if you will but persist.
Mr. A. Homington, 52 Brossedon Place, Montreal, Que., writes:—"I cannot help writing you, as Dr. Chase's Ointment as I suffered many years with itching and protruding piles, and was cured by this ointment. I became tired of the efforts of the best specialists to cure me, and hearing of Dr. Chase's Ointment just as I had of hundreds of other medicines began its use. But the great joy, at the very start, the sharp pains left me and I was gradually cured. I hope that every sufferer will follow my example with the same success."
Every form of piles or hemorrhoids is cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment. 50 cents a box, at all dealers, or Ed. Manson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

A Splendid Spectacle.

The Reid Nicola Co.'s Station which has been decorated with nearly 5,000 electric lights was lit up for the first time at 10.30 last night, and the display was shown for a half hour. It was a magnificent spectacle especially when seen from the South Side Road and other parts of the higher levels. The whole outline of the building was shown with its architectural features, and even the flag pole is traced in electric lights. The Crown over the main entrance looked resplendent and never before was such a display given by the Company. The Colonial Building will also afford a pretty sight, and in this also over 5,000 colored electric bulbs will be shown.

PARENTS.—Your boy or girl who is to graduate this season should have some recognition of your appreciation, to them it is one of two great events of a lifetime. Nothing could please them better than one of those pretty Gold Watches, Lockets, Chains, Bracelets, Brooch, Rings, Tiepin, Safety Pin, Cuff Links, etc. Just opening at TRAPNELLS. Finest English make.
