Incidentally the speaker referred to some of the 'minor imperfections' that have been going on in the way of embezzlements in some of the public departments. Notably he referred to the shortage of $2200 that occurred regently. Is it not strange, said the speaker, how that amount ($2200) should be so familiar with the Morris party? In conclusion Mr. Dwyer thanked the audience for their close hearing and impressed upon all to vote the straight ticket for the Liberal candidates
