The Indication of Value Plumbing is the Workmanship.

A good plumber can do wonders with a difficult job. The number of orders received from friends of customers leads us to believe that we are good. We have on hand a large stock of STEAM & HOT WATER RADIATORS, all sizes, and can fill any order sent us cheaper than you can import at the present time.

This is the number of new subscribers secured by the Maritime Telegraph & Telephone Company during the past year. This represents an increase of about 16 per cent., and the directors state that it would appear from present indications that this rate of increase will be maintained for some time to come. What this means to the holders of the Common Shares of the Company will be readily appreciated.

We have instructions to offer a small block of this Common Stock at an attractive price, to yield well over six and one half per cent.

NET CASH RETURN MORE THAN TWICE THE COST.
W. J. Robertson, Welland, 12th June, 1913.
Agent CANADA LIFE ASSURANCE CO., Port Hope, Ontario.

Dear Sir:—
When acknowledging receipt of the Company's cheque for my matured Endowment Policy No. 24927, I desire to avail myself of the opportunity to express my satisfaction with the outcome of my investment.
The policy was payable to me at age 60, with ten premiums of $45.00 each. The return under it is as follows: Sum assured ————— $1,000.00 Dividends added ————— 250.00 Total amount payable ————— $1,250.00 Deduct total premiums paid — 450.00 $ 800.00

That I should have insurance protection free for all these years and now have over twice the amount of my premiums returned to me in cash is a most satisfactory outcome and I heartily congratulate you on it.

Yours very truly,
GEO. ROSE.

"How Little We Knew."

By RUTH CAMERON.

It is the firemen who set fire to houses. That is why immediately after you see firemen rush to a house, you see it burst into flames.
I suppose you consider these startling statements. They are to me also. But I am not authority for them. They come from the lips of my four year old nephew, who knows more about this subject than his father or mother, his grandfather or grandmother, his uncle or his aunts, in short than all the world of grown-ups who try to convince him to the contrary.
The connection between firemen and fires has been carefully explained to him over and over again. But he simply shakes his head and says, "No, no, the firemen set the fires. Naughty firemen. I hope they won't set fire to this house." And in his eyes is the superior look of one who knows, and who has a half contemptuous pity for our ignorance.
Funny little boy! How we laugh at him and his amusing belief in his own superior wisdom! And yet, and yet, —well do you remember when you graduated from high school how very wise you were? Could any grown-up with merely forty or fifty years experience in this vale of laughter and tears ever know as much as you knew then?
To be sure, you did not think that firemen set the fires instead of putting them out, but were there no other matters about which you were as positive as my little nephew that you know more than your parents or anyone else in the world? Have you not come to laugh at some of the ideas you held then as heartily as my little nephew will laugh about his firemen delusion in a few years?

What an opinionated little person you were then! Now that you have grown so much wiser you can afford to laugh at your implicit belief in your own infallibility. Now, of course, you are really right when you think you are.
And then, to-day in its turn becomes yesterday. And to-morrow becomes to-day. And again we look back and realize the absurdity of our certainties—this time perhaps with more of thoughtfulness than laughter.
And so it ever goes. From one epoch of our lives to another we are always looking back, realizing how little we knew before and congratulating ourselves that now at last we are really wise.
Funny, positive little boy, — we laugh at you and yet to the infinite wisdom surely our grandson, our certainly, our half trust must be just as absurd. For even our greatest knowledge, our most perfect wisdom is but a striving to see through a glass darkly. And when the day comes that we shall see clearly, and shall know "even as also we are known," I somehow like to think how we shall look back across the gulf and say yet once more, "How little we really knew."

Antiseptics In Australian Blue Gum Proves a Cure For Bronchial Catarrh

BAD COLD IN THE HEAD, THROAT WEAKNESS AND CATARRH
CURED QUICKLY.

Medicated Air A Marvel!
Catarrh is far superior to any internal medicine.
Its relief is almost instantaneous—just taken long enough to breathe in the healing vapor into the lungs to give wonderful, soothing relief.
Catarrh goes right to the tiniest cells in the lungs, carrying healing, soothing balsams to the places that are inflamed. Catarrh, inflaming cold, a sneezing cold is cured in ten minutes—a sore throat is healed and restored in an hour or two—chronic bronchitis is soothed away and quickly disappears—catarrh of long standing is invariably cured because Catarrh kills the germs that cause the trouble.

As a cure for Asthma and a preventative of Grippe every doctor is delighted with Catarrh. One eminent throat specialist says if Catarrh is used two or three times each day you will never suffer from any disease of the head, throat, nostrils or lungs. This is good news to many of our readers who must require a safe, sure and permanent cure for their colds and who suffer this. Ever:

JOHN SMITH.

By GEORGE MITCH.

Author of "At Good Old Sivasah." John Smith is a dazzling illustration of what can be accomplished by energy and determination. Born of undistinguished parents and provided with two names so common that whenever any one called him, half of the country side rose up and said, "I'm coming." He set to work to give himself a great name. He did not do this by obtaining a title or by changing the spelling to "Smurthe," either.
He merely became so famous that when the name "John Smith" is mentioned in history to-day, not one person, however ignorant, stops to inquire "Which John?"

Smith was born in England in 1589 and was distinguished by his great size in America. He believed that if the state of Virginia, which was at that time a wholly savage state, could be cultivated, it would produce tobacco, corn and presidents in vast numbers. Accordingly, he organized a colony, loaded it into three ships about the size of the Emperor's life boats and landed in Virginia in 1607.

The school books portray John Smith at this period as a stout man in chilled steel vest and several bushels of beard. He looks like a venerable patriarch and it is a shock to discover that while engaged in de-sanding his infant and worthless colony and in finding food for it as the other first finding food for its savage young, he was twenty-eight years old. For several years John Smith united all the brains and most of the labor and fighting for the colony —after which he gave it up as a bad job and went home.

While John Smith was engaged in exploring Virginia he was captured by the Indians and after they had held him a few weeks, they decided to beat his head with a large stone, as a gentle discouragement to future colonists. At this point, Pocahontas, the daughter of the Chief, threw herself upon Smith and declined to consent to the execution. This saved his life.
After when Pocahontas was visiting in London on her wedding trip, Smith led of the event in the society columns and hurrying around to the hotel he had his deliverer presented to court to Queen Elizabeth. Thus Pocahontas was the first American girl to be presented at court. If John Smith lived to-day he would be smothered by the mobs of rich young American girls determined to save him at all hazards.

If Constipated or Bilious—Cascarets.

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Sluggish Liver and Bowels—They work while you sleep.

Get a 10-cent box.
Take a Cascaret to-night to cleanse your Liver, Stomach and Bowels, and on will surely feel great by morning.
For men and women who have headache, coated tongue, can't sleep, are illious, nervous, upset, bothered with sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have headache and feel all worn out.

Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passage every few days with salt, cathartic pills or castor oil?
Cascarets immediately cleanse, and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels.

Remember, a Cascaret to-night will straighten you out by morning. A 10-cent box from your druggist means healthy bowel action, a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Don't forget the children.

A CRYSTAL LIGHT

Doesn't that suggest a clear, bright light? That is why the name CRYSTALITE was chosen.

TEXACO CRYSTALITE is a crystal light, giving forth mellow, penetrating rays. It gives no smoke nor smell, and is good to the last drop.

TEXACO CRYSTALITE will not fluctuate. It gives a steady glow.

The next time you buy illuminating oil don't merely ask for "a gallon of kerosene." Ask for TEXACO CRYSTALITE and find out why this illuminating oil is known as "the light of the home."

TEXACO CRYSTALITE costs no more than ordinary kinds and most good stores have it.

Remember the name. It will be worth your while to discriminate.
