The Fault In The Jordan.

Between the Dead Sea and the Araba Valley there is a ridge 660 feet high marking the uplifts of Edom and Sinai. Blanckenhorn gives the depth of the fault of the Jordan as 4,500 ft., all in limestone. The bill had a stormy route through the House because of the opposition of the Labor Party, led by Matthew Charlton, member for Hunter, New South Wales. Incidently there was a wholesale issuance of warrants for the General Election arrest of 600 striking British seamen. A short time prior to the Premier's announcement that he would dissolve parliament and appeal to the people for a mandate he made a speech in which he attacked the Communists. He declared that they had gained control of trades unionists in Australia and were using it to aid in bringing about a social revolution and the establishment of a dictatorship by them over the whole of the Commonwealth. The Premier said the Government was determined to fight Communism with all the means at its disposal, and the Government would not permit any section of the community to arrogate to itself the power to enforce its will on the people against their consent. He demanded a mandate to enact measures "necessary to maintain the supremacy of parliamentary government and law and order."
