BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE for April contains the following articles: - "Alce Lorraine," which was commenced last month, is not only interesting, but is usually published by this magazine. Another pretty picture is drawn for us in "Valentine and his Brother," where "Val" and "Vi," having played truant, are found like the "Babes in the Wood." "Disorder in Dream-land" terminates the series of the heroine, while the reader is left to judge whether or not there is Disorder in Dream-land. "New Books" begins by contrasting Mrs. Somerville's "Memoirs" with John Stuart Mill's "Autobiography," gives a review of the former work, touching on the more important events of her life, and introducing several charming quotations. The "Journal of Correspondence of Andre-Marie Ampere" is one of those books which, perhaps, it is half profane to publish, but which, once published, become to every sympathetic reader not books, but incidents and persons he has known usually are devoted to "Prosper and the very pleasant article closes with a notice of "Guthrie's Autobiography." "International Vanities, No. IV, treats of "Decorations." "Orders began with civility, piety, and battle; they terminate in a bastion-hole!" After the foregoing statement, the story of the "Hospital-tailors of St. John." To the present time, showing how we have been led gradually from "the badges of the soldiers of Holy Church to the decorations by which demeritized honor is now offered as a bait to everybody who is worthy enough, or lucky enough, to win what are supposed to be its emblems." The magazine closes with a long article on "The Political Situation," and a graphic account of "Ashantee," which does not give us any desire to make an extended tour in that region. For sale at the Bookstore.
A cable telegram dated 5 a. m. this day states that there was no leak about the French steamer L'Americo. It appears somebody had left her valves open. Dr. Wiggins, of Brantford, is writing the biography of the late Hon. John Sandfield Macdonald.

Local and Other Items.

A LAMB belonging to Mr. James Parth, of Exeter, which died shortly after birth, had five legs and six feet - two behind and three in front, one being joined by a circular bone on the neck.
The Clinton New Era understands that the Red Chaff wheat is commonly known as "Farrow" wheat, and that it does not make as sweet bread as other varieties.
ASPIRING. - The Mayor of Belleville has been instructed to invite the Earl and Countess of Dufferin to the May fair to be held in that town. Should the Vice-Regal party assent, they will be the guests of the corporation.
SUDDEN DEATH. - On the evening of the 22nd inst., a girl named Flora McNeil, residing in Brantford, had been out working, and on returning to her home took ill and almost immediately expired. It is said her body turned black as soon as the breath had left it.
SEVERE ACCIDENT AT PARER. - Two of Martin's mill workmen while off duty the other day got too much liquor, and on their return home they upset a lighted lamp. James Clayton, one of the men, was so severely burned about the face that it is thought his eyesight is endangered.
TEMPERANCE MOVEMENT AT THE FALLS. - A deputation of ladies yesterday called on the Excise Board at the Falls and presented a petition signed by 500 women, praying that some measure might be taken to reduce the alarming increase of intemperance in their midst. The Board received the petition and reserved their decision.
FIRE IN OWEN SOUND. - On Sunday night, 20th inst., the barn belonging to James Quinn was burned to the ground, with its contents, - two horses, a cow, and a large quantity of hides. A colored man named Gordon has been arrested on suspicion of incendiarism. The building was insured.
Saw MILL ACCIDENT. - On Tuesday, 21st inst., as a boy aged about seven, son of Mr. Robt. Wilson, Lucknow, was engaged in helping to roll a saw log at Mr. W. Treleven's saw mill, he accidentally fell over the log which rolled partly over him, severely bruising his limbs. No bones were broken.
VEGETABLE COWS. - On the 10th of April inst., a cow belonging to Mr. David McClure, of the Old Survey, King, gave birth to twin calves; the following day another cow belonging to the same gentleman, also had twin calves; and stranger still, on the day after, a third cow had twins - all doing well, being fine healthy calves.
WIMBLEDON. - At a meeting of the Dominion Rifle Association, a resolution was passed requesting the Provincial Associations to send delegates to represent Canada at the Wimbledon matches this summer. We hope this county will have the honor of being represented in the team.
ACCIDENTS. - A few days ago a little daughter of Mr. John McKay, Lucknow, was playing on the doorstep when she fell and broke her leg just below the knee. The next day the mother, Mrs. John McKay, met with a serious accident by being struck on the head with a broken rail which flew up when he was unloading timber. He will be confined to the house for some time.
THE YORKVILLE BURGULARY. - Some time ago two men were arrested in Markham on suspicion of being the parties to this affair, and one of them turns out to be the notorious American thief, Luke Egan, alias Brush, who some time ago escaped in a daring manner from the Alleghany prison, and for whose apprehension a reward is still offered by the American authorities. Dain is still confined to his bed on account of the injuries sustained.
A UTILITARIAN. - A wealthy gentleman in New York has added a codicil to his will ordering that after his death his body shall be injected with petroleum, placed in a metallic coffin and then deposited in one of the retreats of the Manhattan Gas Company's works. If afterwards no one wishes to inter his ashes, they are to be delivered to the Central Park Commissioners, to be used as fertilizing material on one of the flower-beds near the music stand.
ACCIDENT IN GALT. - We learn with regret that Mr. John McK. Anderson, editor of the Galt Reformer, had his hand severely injured on the 17th inst. Mr. A. at the time was working a "Gordie" in a platoon caught between the bed and the "pull" - the press stopping with obstruction offered by the hand. The injury was found to be so severe that medical aid was required, and Dr. Philip dressed the wound. We hope our friend will soon be all right again.
SHEEP FOR THE STATES. - Mr. Creighton, of Omaha, has been making extensive purchases of sheep in Canada, shipping 240 head from St. Thomas, P. C. Canada Southern Railway. Mr. C. purchased 1 buck and 19 ewes from Mr. Pennell at $10 per head. He bought 4 bucks of Mr. Snell, of Chinguacousy, for which he paid $45, $41, $31, and $21 each; and 25 from Mr. George Miller, of Markham, at $20 per head. $100 was paid for a buck purchased from Mr. Armstrong, of Markham.
RAILWAY COLLISION. - No. 3 express going east at noon on Friday ran into a freight train on the siding at Parkhill station on the G. T. R. The brakeman at the freight train, after opening the switch to let his own train in, omitted to close it, when No. 3 coming up afterwards turned from the main line into the siding and ran into the freight. Both engines were damaged and nearly every car in the freight train was more or less injured. The conductor of the express was slightly hurt.
THE CORKINDALE MURDER. - Two more persons, Nelson Mow and his wife, were arrested on Friday night at Windsor on a charge of being concerned in the murder of Corkindale. They were living in Detroit, but were induced on some pretence to cross over the river to Windsor, when they were immediately taken into custody. The number now under arrest is twelve. The most of these are said to have been living together in an abandoned manner at the time of the alleged murder, but had since dispersed in various directions. It is understood that some of the prisoners have confessed to a knowledge of the crime, and will be used as witnesses.

The New Town Hall.

To the Editor of the Mercury: - Sir, - As there seems to be an impression created by the statement in Mr. Crowe's letter that the proposed Town Hall and Market House will cost the town $48,638 or $2,180 a year without any revenue being derived therefrom, I submit the following statement of the probable revenue to be obtained yearly from such a building, clearly showing that the ratepayers will not be called upon for one farthing of the cost of said building, but on the contrary a clear gain of from $50 to $300 over the revenue derived from the present Hall and Stalls, viz: -
12 Butchers' Stalls at a rent of $12 per month, $144
in the year..... $1,728 00
Hall taken at double the old Hall, 800 00
Green Grocers' and Fishmongers' stalls, &c..... 500 00
Yearly instalment to pay for building..... 2,180 00
Showing a balance over paying instalment of..... $ 648 00
Which when added to the amount to be derived from the present Town Hall and Butchers' Stalls 500 00
Will yield a revenue of..... $1,148 00
The present amount of yearly revenue is..... $1,066 00
Balance at the credit of the Town greater than at present..... $ 82 00
But which may be greatly increased, if the Mechanics' Library Room, and Butchers' Stalls were converted into a Post Office, and the present Town Hall and ante-rooms, into Inland Revenue and Customs Offices, which seems to me the proper position for such offices, being the most central. Besides, the building is already erected, and could be fitted up at a small cost, and let to the Government for less than any building could now be erected for the purpose.
It would not be until the fall of next year that it could be made available for such a purpose, and it is to be hoped the Government would then be in a position to lease them.
I am sure the site would command its full value, and pay for the Government, and is both convenient and central, with sufficient space all around it. Besides, when the whole of the buildings were erected, they would be a convenience and ornament to the town, (AND BE IT REMEMBERED WITHOUT COASTING THE TOWN A FARTHING.)
CHARLES DAVIDSON. Guelph, April 25, 1874.
E. V. BODWELL, Esq., the new Superintendent of the Welland Canal, made a strong temperance speech the other night in St. Catharines.

THE TRIAL of the G. W. R. employee on the train which was burned near Kocoka, will be tried at the Middlesex Assizes in May. At the same time the claims of the injured will be sent in. These claims vary from $500 to $10,000.
The funeral of Ferdinand Keifer who died suddenly in St. Catharines, was held attended on Friday. The Fire Company turned out in a body, and the band of the St. Patrick's Temperance Society headed the procession.
THE ST. CATHARINES MURDER. - The police have worked this case up, and know all about it. The hiding place of the suspected perpetrators of the crime the town of Goderich, and warrants have been issued for their arrest.
KID TO DEATH. - A man named Jas. Ross, fell into a cistern outside his house in Goderich, and in so doing caught his leg on a nail, making an ugly wound. He climbed out of the cistern and made his way into the house. A doctor could not be obtained, and in about an hour the man died to death.
EXPORTING BEEF. - Messrs. Hately Bros. of Brantford, packed and sent to Bartlepool, Londonderry, and other parts of the Kingdom, a quantity of fresh beef, as a present to their friends there. The experiment proved highly successful. The beef arrived in first-class order and gave unbounded satisfaction, notwithstanding it was six months on the way.
THE SEAFORTH EXPOSITOR says: - "We learn from a friend of Mr. J. C. McKay, formerly of McKillop, that he has sold his farm in North Carolina, and that he intends returning to Ontario shortly. Mr. McKay was at first very much taken up with North Carolina, but we presume he is now convinced that it is not always gold that glitters."

Mr. Brydges has addressed a circular to the heads of the Departments and the staff of the Grand Trunk Railway, announcing his resignation as Managing Director, and expressing his regret at the severance of their long association together, and stating that Mr. Hinkson, Secretary-Treasurer, will from this date take charge of the railway until his successor is appointed.

Better Things.

BY GEORGE MACDONALD.
Better to smell the violet cold, than sip the glowing wine.
Better to bark a hidden brook, than watch a diamond shine.
Better the love of a gentle heart, than beauty's favor proud;
Better the rose's living seed, than roses in a crowd.
Better to love in loneliness, than bask in love all day;
Better the fountain in the heart, than the fountain by the way.
Better to be fed by a mother's hand, than eat alone at all;
Better to trust in God than say, "My goods are my storehouse and my great house, than the king of all the earth."
They watched her sail with the favoring gale,
While the sun shone bright on the river;
But little they knew, as she faded from view,
She had sailed away for the fever.
Many weary days shall I gaze on the sea,
And hope in lone death throes shall I quiver;
But the look was their last, for a thing of the past,
She has vanished, and vanished for ever.
A dark mystery, left with the lone sea,
No herald her fate shall deliver;
Men only shall know, 'mid the sun's setting glow,
They lost her, and lost her for ever.
Stratford has some cases of small-pox. The Y. M. C. A. of Bowmanville has voted not to admit boys under fifteen years of age to the reading room without a written request from their parents.
There was not a single Protestant on the petti jury before which the Moussau vs. Witness case was tried in Montreal.
Lord Spencer has done what is deemed a very liberal act in England. He has decided to rent an acre each to six of the laborers on his estate.
The Ottawa River is nearly clear of ice, and steamers begin this week to run upon it. Farther east the prospect is much less spring-like.
PATENT GOLD. - Messrs. Harley & Hanson, of Guelph, after a number of years experimenting, have succeeded in perfecting and disposing of an attachment to sewing machines for making button-holes. The Howe Sewing Machine Company of New York are the purchasers, and the price paid is $60,000 for the exclusive United States right. This speaks well for Canadian ingenuity, as there were over 100 different machines in competition. The privilege of wearing button-holes in one's clothes is not necessarily infringed upon. - Toronto Sun.
COUNTY OF HURON. - Mr. M. C. Cameron has brought in a bill to re-adjust the Centre and South Ridings of that county, which were so unfairly distributed in the Act of 1872. It sets forth that by that Act the county was divided into three Ridings, called, respectively, the North, Centre and South; that the South now consists of the township of Goderich, Stanley, Hay, Stephen, Uxbridge and the village of Clinton, and the Centre consists of the townships of Colborne, the town of Goderich, and the village of Sandford; that the township of Tuckersmith, by natural boundaries and geographical position, should form part of the South Riding; that a large majority of the electors of Tuckersmith have petitioned to be detached from the Centre Riding and to be attached to the South Riding for the purpose of representation in the House of Commons; that the Ridings should be made as compact as possible; and the several municipalities comprising each should be contiguous to each other. The Bill then provides that Tuckersmith be transferred from the Centre to the South Riding of the county.
SPOILING HORSES, FEET. - It is almost impossible to get a horse shod without having the frog cut away. All veterinary surgeons, all horsemen, all leading blacksmiths, agree that the frog should not be pared one particle, nor even trimmed. No matter how pliable and soft the frog is, it is away smooth on all sides, and in two days it will be dry and hard as a chip. One might as well cut all the leaves of trees and expect them to flourish, as to pare away the frog and have a healthy foot. The rough, spongy part of the frog is the foot, what leaves are to the tree - the lungs. Never have a red-hot shoe put upon the foot to burn it away. If you can find a blacksmith that is mechanic enough to level the foot without red-hot iron, employ him. If you do not think so, try the red-hot poker on your finger nail, and see how it will effect the growth of that. There are many other important points in shoeing horses, but these two are of more importance than any of the rest, and the most disregarded. "No frog, no foot, no horse."
PRESERVING THE TEETH. - Dr. Ambler, dental surgeon, says that one of the simplest means of preserving the teeth consists in cleanliness of the mouth. The first thing after rising in the morning, or from a meal, should be to clean the mouth thoroughly with tepid water. It is the custom in some parts of England and France to rinse the mouth with warm aromatic water after eating. It is well to remember that this precaution not only tends to keep the teeth clean, but to clear the voice of those who are about to sing or converse. By cleaning the teeth three times a day regularly the formation of tartar is not only prevented, but such articles of food and such other extraneous matters as lodge about and adhere to them, causing irritation and inflammation, are by this means removed. The fermentation of vegetable substances in the mouth produces, indistinctly, sulphuric acid, animal and nitro-genous substances producing a certain decay. These vitiate the fluids of the mouth and help the teeth on to a certain decay. Attention to the cleanliness of the teeth in early life cannot be too urgently insisted upon, for it is then that the foundation of sickly teeth is most frequently laid.
