FRACAS IN STREETVILLE.—On Monday morning last, about one o'clock, a row occurred in Streetville between a number of gentlemen from Brampton putting up at the Green Bush, and some of the Italians working on the Credit V. Railway. Some parties in the village interfered, but were beaten by the laborers. They returned with reinforcements, when a general melee ensued. Clubs and other weapons were freely used, and several were badly hurt on both sides. The village party eventually got the best of it, and put the others to flight. Messrs. Horatius Street, Owens, Bonham, Williams, McConnell, Josephs and Cole, were seriously cut about the head and face. The parties Thomas and Clark had a hammer freely applied to their skulls, and the others were more or less injured.

BREAKFAST.—Epps' Cocoa.—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING.—By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoas, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. —Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. Each packet is labelled — "James Epps & Co.", Homoeopathic Chemists, London."

The Lanark Kirk Bible is a folio published by Robert Barker, London, 1616. There are numerous pencillings through some of the portions of the Old and New Testaments, evidently by old hands. No one can handle this book but must be forcibly reminded of the stern days in which it would be used, and consolation afforded by the various divines who must have used it—Wm. Livingstone, 1614; Robert Birnie, 1643; John Ballantyne, 1688.

BLESSINGS BRIGHTEN AS THEY TAKE THEIR FLIGHT.—If you have a good head of hair take care of it; once gone and we realize its loss far more than we appreciate its presence. The Bearine is taking the place of all other hair dressings, because it is healthful to the hair and delightful to use.

Among the material used in pumping out the old graving-dock at Port Glasgow, which was lately sold at auction, was a water-tank which had formerly been the boiler attached to the original steam-engine constructed by James Watt.

The four kilted regiments at the Aldershot Review—the 42d, 78th, 79th, and 93rd—were the same four who represented the Highlands of Scotland at Lucknow. Colonels Sir John McLeod, Mackenzie, Miller and McBean, all served with the regiments they led on Tuesday, in the operations in question.
