R. station to Woodland Cemetery. Rev.

sist him in perfecting the organization of the Thirty-Second Battalion.

—A Vanessa correspondent writes: "Mr.
Carmon Howey, son of Mr. G. A. Howey, has gone west to locate in Woodstock or London. It is generally admitted here that the Old Policy of the Old Man fails to benefit the farmer or to keep the young men on the farm."

—The joint committee of the Travelers' Circles and the London Temperance Union met on Saturday night. It was agreed to Browell succeeds Mr. Armitage in Cumine's drug store. (Welland Tribune.)

—Haverly's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" Company will be at the Grand Opera House to-morrow night. The company is composed of other actors and actresses, and many specialty features are: Little secured.

—At Toronto, in the case of Bank of Montreal, McMillan, Stouffville (Brampton) for the defendant, moved for prohibition to a Division Court in the county of Middlesex on the ground that the whole cause of action did not arise in that county, and defendant does not reside there. Swabey, for the plaintiffs, contra. Motion dismissed on the ground that the defendant should have applied to the judge in the Division Court to transfer the case to the proper Division Court.

Manager Kirchmer's Benefit.

The plan for Sol. Smith Russell's performance of "A Poor Relation" will open this morning at the Grand Opera House box office, and quite a rush for seats is expected. A number of tickets have been sold in advance, and the applications from Bertham, Stouffville, Woodstock, Berlin and Stratford have been more numerous than in former years. It is expected that the Forest City Cycling Club and a number of Western Union students will attend in a body. Among press criticisms are the following:—New York Tribune. Like sunshine breaking through April showers.
—New York Herald. The first emphatic success in New York this season. Graphic.
Surrounded with an air of purity and refinement quite refreshing. New York

The Seventh at Church.

The Seventh Fusiliers turned out Sunday morning for church parade to St.
George's, London West. About 150 reported at the drill shed, and headed by the battalion and bugle bands, 50 strong, marched via Central avenue, Richmond, Albert and Blackfriars streets. Col. Tracy Major Beckwith, the corps followed by the men themselves in their scarlet tunics, trimmings and bobbies. The bandmen also presented a smart appearance in glistering white helmets. Captain Payne, Lieutenant Moore, Lieutenants Dixon, Kingsmill, Dawson, Coo and Magee were the other attendant officers.

The pretty church was crowded and chaired in the adjacent school room were brought in plentifully by the obliging officials. Rev. G. B. Sage, the rector, preached a short, appropriate sermon from Isaiah, xix, 5: "For my sword shall be bathed in Heaven." The choir added greatly to the brightness of the service.
The procession re-formed, marching via Oxford and Richmond streets to the armory, and there the men were dismissed.

Varied and Bright.

On Saturday evening the popular Zera Semon closed his week's engagement at the Grand Opera House. His wonderful tact in preparing a completely new show on the occasion of each of his visits is no doubt the secret of his repeated successes. One novel feature was a neat comedy-drama in which John Patten, Mrs. Patten, Mrs. Semon, Mrs. Blake and Tommy Fultz appeared.
It was played here for the first time and was so much appreciated that it will hereafter be shown in other cities and towns.
The tricks of Zera Semon were new and more deceptive than ever. The "black art" of Sahib Ben Hommid was very mysterious, representing the actions of an Egyptian necromancer in his entrance to a dark cavern. The dancing of the Pattons, the Blakes' specialties, Tommy Fultz touches of comedy, and last, but not least, the nightly distribution of hundreds of useful presents, make Semon's performances among the most extensively patronized that ever visit London. He has scarcely departed before people begin to ask the date of his next visit. The troupe left for Gannaque on Sunday afternoon.

The Local Option Clause.

The Royal Templar, of Hamilton, says:
"The Local Option Clause, the township solicitor of Lobo, in Middlesex county, has gained a little notoriety by advising the municipal council that it was a risky thing, for a legal point of view, for them to submit to vote the provision of the Ontario Liquor License Act, popularly known as 'local option.' Acting upon his advice the councillors refused to take any action on the long-suffered petition which was presented asking for a vote. It is said that there is nothing more uncertain than law, but it is safe to say there is not a provision on the statute books of the Province more likely to be safe from the successful attack than the one this young lawyer throws suspicion upon. The best lawyers of the Dominion have thoroughly thrashed out the problem of liquor legislation in the Scott Act cases and the Dominion License Act cases which were carried to the highest court in the realm."

ORDERS PROMPTLY DELIVERED

A TRAVELER.

I have traveled the wide world over, in India, where I lived for years, I became afflicted with corns and bunions, and that more terrible disease of the feet by which so many natives are crippled, and known in India as "SAND FEET." I have had the corns for weeks under the best medical treatment, from which I received little or no benefit, and was all but reconciled to suffer for the remainder of my life, when happily I came across that great benefactor of suffering humanity, Barkwell's "SAND FEET CURE." You will say I am very loose in my praise, Mr. Editor, but I have every reason to be so, and would be very ungrateful if I were not. I got a bottle three years ago and it cured me completely when everything else failed. I have every faith in Barkwell's Sand Feet Cure, and my wife and I publish it as far as we can. If Mr. Barkwell lived in India he would make a fortune out of his Corn Cure, and I am happy to subscribe my name.

CHARLES CHANCELLOR,
48 Princes Avenue.

N. B.—Mr. Barkwell would make a fortune out of his Corn Cure in Canada if the profits were not so small.

Justice Galt, a dispatch from Toronto says, remarked that "the last made up his mind that the legislation was faulty. There are two cases of the same nature, and it is understood they will be taken to the several Courts of Appeal."

Now is it the demand is so great the Highland Lassie Cigar? Why? customers use any other brand? Why? customers are becoming stock on themselves? It is that we see Highland Lassie Cigars everywhere. The reply is not far to seek. The manufacturers, McKer & Co., secure by straight dealing won the confidence of the trade, and the public rest assured that the confidence will not be abused. The Highland Lassie is made from the finest tobacco, and is certainly the best five cent cigar made in Canada.

A Pleasant Herb Drink—A Spring

Medicine.

The druggists tell us that people call daily for the new cure for constipation and sick headache discovered by Dr. Silas Lane. It is said to be Oregon grape root (a great remedy in the far west for those complaints) combined with simple herbs, and is made for use by pouring on boiling water to draw out the strength.
It sells at 50 cents and $1 a package and is called Lane's Family Medicine. ywt
