ANNUAL BANQUET

Party of Sixty Has a Pleasant Evening a Downtown Restaurant.

Company B of the Seventh Regiment held its annual banquet at a downtown restaurant last evening, and the affair was one round of merriment and good fellowship from start to finish. Capt. H. C. Becher was in the chair, and about 60 guests enjoyed the good things that were provided. In addition to the officers and men of the company who were almost all in atcompany, who were almost all in attendance, many guests from other military organizations were present. A very informal and most enjoyable programme of toasts and musical selections was carried out, interspersed with many a jest and happy remark. Lieut. Gregory spoke as "one who Lieut. The representatives from the other control of the control of replied to "Sister Corps." Sergt. Hanna gave the company some valuable "shop talk." Surgeon-Major Becher rendered ome songs in a way that was heartily appreciated, and gave a talk upon the Dominion of Canada.

Capt. Becher spoke of the unity and good-fellowship which was characteristic of Company B, and pointed to a nost successful past, and great things for the future. Pte. Murphy's readings were also much enjoyed, as were also the selections rendered by the company's quartet. The gathering did not break up until after midnight.
