LOCAL MARKET. London, Wednesday, Nov. 4. About a dozen loads of hay were offered; the demand was good and prices firm at $12 per ton for the choice loads; there will be a good demand for hay tomorrow and on Friday.

No straw offered today. Oats scarce, at $1 20 per cwt.

WEEKLY REVIEW Although there were no new features at the market this past week, there was a good demand in all lines of farm products There was no material change in prices. Grain-Oats are in good demand and prices are a shade higher, at $1 15 to $1 20 cwt for the best. Barley scarce, at $1 15 per cwt. Wheat is unchanged, at 88c

Hay and Straw-Hay is selling well a $12 per ton for choice, $11 for medium and $. 50 to $10 for inferior. Straw is scarce and prices firm, at $7 per ton. Butter and Eggs-Butter is scarce and prices firm, at 23c for crocks and 24c to the for pound rolls, by the basket lot. Eggs are in fair demand at 25c per doz by the basket for fresh-laid, and 23c for

Potatoes-The market has been slow, but on Tuesday there was a little brisker demand; prices are 65c to 70c per bag by the load; the slowness in trade is attributed to the small quantity that is being shipped, compared with last year, and also that there have been quite a few 15c higher; light, $5 40 to $6 15; mixcar lots received here; there are more potatoes in the country than was estinated in the early part of the season. Fruits-Apples are in fair demand, at

$1 50 to $2 50 per barrel, the latter price for choice Spies; by the bag, 60c to chestnuts are about done, the few lots offered being sold at about $3 per bu. Poultry-The dealers are quoting lower prices; turkeys, 10c per lb alive, or 12c 6 25. dressed; ducks, 7c per 1b alive, 9c to 10c dressed; old fowl, 5c per lb alive, 7c dressed; chickens, 8c per lb alive, 10c dressed; geese, &c per 1b dressed. Dressed Hogs-The market is a little easier; this was to be expected, as there was too big a difference in the price of dressed and live hogs; $7 75 to $8 per cwt is now pald, mostly the latter price. Live Hogs-Prices are $5 75 per cwt for selects and $4 for fat sows; small pigs sell

Butchers' Meats-Beef is firm, at $5 50 to $6 50 per cwt, and occasionaly $7 for extra choice carcase; veal is in fair demand, at 81/2c to 9c per cwt; lamb, 9c

Hides-The market is quiet and prices are unchanged, at 8c for No. 1, 7c for No. 2, and 6c for No. 3 grades of cow hides; calfskins, 11c per 1b. Wool is quoted at 13c per lb for wash-
