FOUR LONDON-PLAYERS LIABLE TO SUSPENSION

Bierbauer, Smith, Linneburn and Gilhooly Have Not Yet Signed 1913 Contracts-Club Will Likely Deal With Them This Week.

[BY JINX.] ASEBALL NEWS was as scarce as the proverbial hen's teeth when The ASEBALL NEWS was as scarce as the proverbial hen's teeth when The Advertiser sport swriter called on President Stevely, of the London club, this morning. Not a contract had been received, and about the only communication relating to the great summer pastime that came in President Stevely's mail this morning was an application from an infielder for a tryout with Manager Rube Deneau's collection. However, these applications in St.

are as numerous as shattered hopes in St. Thomas, and little or no attention is paid them.
It is seldom a good ball player is secured by application. The good ones do not have to seek but are sought after.

President Stevely was in Windsor on Saturday, and while there he had a brief discourse with Manager Deneau. The Rube has been busy getting after some good players, and he states that he will have "some" pitching staff this season. In all about sixteen contracts have been signed, but before the season opens it is likely that about thirty players will report in London for tryouts. Deneau is hot on the trail of good backstop, and he expects to catch up with him in a few days. He has not yet run out of contract blanks, and until he does he will be right out after the players every minute. Del Chaput will be found wearing a London uniform this season, and he and Fitzpatrick are about the only two twirlers known to local fans who will appear back here in the spring. The other pitchers will be new to London. There are still four hold-outs on the local club. Bierbauer, Gilhooly, Linneburn and

Sammy Smith have not yet come to terms. All these players are open to suspension, and in all probability that is what will happen them should they not come across in a few days with a signed contract. Bierbauer, Gilhooly and Linneburn have all refused to sign at the terms offered them. Sammy Smith has not been heard from for some time, the last communication conveying the information that he desired his release owing to the fact that his family were moving to Virginia, and he wished to play ball down fact that his family were moving to Virginia, and he wished to play ball down there. For making excuses, Sammy has it on his pitching forty different ways, and he should shine in the alibi league. A contract has been forwarded him and if he does not sign, well, it will just be a repetition of last season. Sammy did not get into the game until near the end of the summer. ## CURLING NOTES

The final games for the Warren Thor son Cup will be played at the Thistle Eink this evening. Five rinks are still in the running in this event, and the games should prove interesting.

It is likely that five rinks of Galt curlers will visit the London Thistle Clab on Wednesday evening. Secretary Tilson sent invitations to the Galt Club, and they are expected, if the present cold

Owing to the other games this week, it is likely the weekly bonspiel of the Thistle Club will be called off on Friday

Three rinks of London Club curiers will go to St. Thomas this evening to play for the Malahide medal. The Malahide medal was won by Thomas last winter from the Thistle Club after the Thistles had successfully defended it against the London The London club then sent in a challenge to St. Thomas, but the latter club would not recognize it and refused to play. The challenge stood since then and all winter London club have been asking St. Thomas to name a date to play off the games. Secretary Currie was notified last week that the matches had been arranged for this evening.

The Thistle Club bonspiel for the John Carling medal will be played at the north end rink tomorrow evening. The bonspiel is only open to Thistle Club curlers, and the members are asked to send in their entries as soon as possible. The games will start sday evening at 7:30 o'clock, and the draw will be made shortly before that. The names should be sent in to Harry Ranahan, of the games committee. The bonspiel should prove interesting, and a large number of rinks will likely compete for the medal.

ZBYSZKO WON THE MATCH. New York, March 1.—Stanislaus Zbysz-or, the Poilsh champion heavyweight restler, defeated Paul Samson, the Gerwrestler, defeated Paul Samson, the German champion, in a catch-as-catch-can bout, limited to 40 minutes, at the New York Athletic Club tonight. Zbyszko forced Samson to quiet with a toe hold in 31 minutes 58 seconds, and after a 30-minutes intermission, with 8 minutes and 2 seconds of the time limit unexpired, the men went at it again. Zbyszko was nearly all the time on the aggressive, but neither wrestler gained a fall, and the match went to the Polish champion on points.
