How to Fit Men For Their Work of the love of letters and the passion for knowledge which they drank in themselves from their professors in Edinburgh or Glasgow. The world professors in Edinburgh or Glasgow.

One of the most important indus-chology.

Growing Masses Who Do Not Succeed, But otonous work belonged to a women who packs incandescent lamps in tissue rived from modern legislation only Who Might Succeed If Properly Placed-A Serious Problem Discussed By Professor Munsterberg.

Professor Hugo Munsterberg, one of waste. "Experiments in scientific that group of brilliant Harvard professors, has just published a very strik- needed where, on the basis of the old ing book, which brings psychology out plan, about 500 laborers had been enthe clouds and the professorial chair gaged. The average working man teresting. and planks it down on the counter, in the workshop and factory, and wherenine tons without greater fatigue. The ever there is a thing to be done. nine tons without greater fatigue. The large is a thing to be done. In "Psychology and Industrial Effi- wages were raised by two-thirds, and it is a superscript of the control of the to choose a man because he has two In the professor's laboratory at Harhands. The man must fit his work vard experiments are being made with and the work must fit the man, and sewing by hand, "which is still entirely then mind and hands can drive tan- left to the traditions of common sense. dem, or pair, and can do the work, Experiments are being made with rewhatever it is, in the best possible gard to the length of thread, speed, intelligent working man. way. Square pegs for square holes number of stitches, fatigue, and so on. and round pegs for circles. This is Problem of Monotony. the latest development of psychology. "Social statistics," says Professor cess become discouraged and embittered.

| Comparison of the individual of work than upon the special discouraged and embittered of the whole life of the lab-sist the conviction that every single makes the factory scheme a necessary, one could have found a place in which but, from the standpoint of psychology, perhaps have done satisfactory work in the next mill, where the machines action. His psychical rhythm and his jobs. "In an electrical factory with world in the demand for the cheap-inner functions would be able to adjust many thousands of employes I gained est labor. themselves to the requirements of the one kind of labor and not to those of the other. Truly, the whole social body has had to pay a heavy penalty for not making even the faintest effort to settle systematically the fundamental problem of vocational choice-the problem of psychical adaptation of the individuality. An improvement would be equally in the interest of those who have positions to offer. The careful selection of individual mental characters for the various tasks of the world various kinds of labor in their establishments." and the most curious fact elicited was that "whether the answer came from paper mills or machine shops, from meat packing houses or chemical mills, from railroad or mining companies—everywhere it was acknowledged that they had given hardly any conscious attention to the real psyconscious attention to the real psycon tand quite in the centre of the field providing an alternative education. They of industrial efficiency. This convictional that the providing an alternative education. They could learn in the "public school" (as tion has grown upon me in my observation of industrial life. The peculiar than the kind of attention decides more than Latin and Euclid and French as their any mental trait for which economic activity the individual is adapted.

Problem of Attention.

Italians and Greeks, because they are desk of their lather's mill. The chil-too hasty and careless in their move-dren of ministers and doctors were sent lands, were almost invariably gradu-the company offered to accommodate passed the civil service examination, with Irishmen.' Professor Munsterberg suggests the reference to psychology of commerce "There are many fac and industry. tories that have scores of of scientifically-trained chemists or physicists at psychologist to their staff. And yet his observations and researches might become economically the most important justified for the large department stores, and especially for the big transfurther specalisation might be ex-

"Some of these psychological enfit of the establishment than the mere increase in the number of laborers.

in the day's work, and the crippling of he had ever met, and a man reduced, indeed nothing is more need- lam." various psychological functions invlov- became a lecturer in "Extension" ed in the work." Professor Munsterberg's book contains a number of most interesting facts from various indus- Scottish universities with medals and tries on these points, which show what honors, to become the principal of a a marvellous piece of mechanism the mind is-even that of the cheapest

the great Bethlehem Steel Works, children, boisterous and noisy, climbed where hundreds of laborers had to shovel heav, iron ore or light ashes

CHILDREN IN THE HOME.

it requires constant attention to keep was a boy who was the envy of his them free from the many childhood comrades, because a groom with a ailments which come so quickly some of them proving fatal while ings. At another, heavy and sleepy, others leave the little ones cross, rest- with muddy, hob-nailed boots, which less and weak. To keep little ones well were the common joke of the senool, the stomach and bowels, break up colds and fevers; expel worms and make teething easy. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or hy mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Will liams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The stomach and bowels, break up transped his ten miles or more from a strengthened. To renew or maintain the streng the impression that the prize for monwho packs incandescent lamps in tissue rived from modern legislation only paper. She wraps them from morning until night, from the first day of the year to the last, and has been doing that for the last twelve years. She performs this packing process at an average rate of 13 000 learners and the respect for the learned, sees in them not so much the proletariat of the civil service, as the guardians of its most cherished national treation. age rate of 13,000 lamps a day. The its most cherished national tradition. They erect no solitary and unsocial woman has reached about 50,000,000 ladder. They erect the engineers of a times for the next lamp with one hand ladder. They are the engineers of a and with the other to the little pile of spacious turnpike road. tissue sheets, and then performed the packing. Each lamp demands about twenty finger movements. She assured me that she found the work really in-

Individual Dispositions.

A certain man has to feed an on Captain Oates: ciency" (Constable and Co. 6s, net.) he shows that it is not merely sufficient material were decreased one-half."

As we pay tribute to the memory of in metal strips. "He made about 34,000 uniform movements daily, rade, let us realize that we do so as automatic machine which cuts holes and had been doing that for the last much to Oates the type as to Oates the fourteen years. But he gave me the individual. Let us remember that as same account—that the work was interesting and stimulating, while he died in self-sacrifice, so die the English, and no doubt others—away from himself made the impression of an the limelight-every day that the sun

"On the other hand, I not seldom found wage-earners, both men and factories, in the coalfields, in the coastwomen, who seemed to have really in- wise trade, while the landsman sleep teresting and varied activities, and o' nights, the English men and women trial problems is that of monotony of who, nevertheless, complained bitter- die to save others. Let those that read Munsterberg, "show with an appaling employment. "This complete division ly over the monotonous, tiresome factory labor. I became more and more be endowed with the strength to do clearness what a burden and what a danger to the social body is growing from the masses of those who do not described, and therefore it now apsucceed and who by their lack of suc- pears undeniable that the method must kind of work than upon the special dis-

"The social psychologist cannot re- orer, deprives it of all joy in work, and the higher classes of work." Professor Munsterberg's thoughtprovoking book suggests that a higher could have achieved something of a decidedly regrettable evil. "I have," regard will be put on all labor when lue for the common-wealth. regard will be put on all labor when value for the common-wealth.

"The laborer who, in spite of his more and more convinced that the scier, and when he has to put up a board best efforts, shows himself useless and clumpy before one machine might indorse this judgment of popular psynone."

No Hands Wanted," which curiously enough He visited factories with a view to states the principle on which we finding out the most tiresome possible have too long acted in the industrial

AN IDYLLIC PICTURE OF A SCOTTISH SCHOOL

[From the Nation, London, Eng.]

There comes to the memory of the vouth of the village by reason of the sweets disposed for sale in its writer the picture of what English windows. Under the great Doric pileducationists would call "a singleand gain, but, above all, greater joy in school area," as it existed some twenthe world, deeper satisfaction, and ty years ago. Picture to yourself a commonplace village in Perthshire. It class school with the main a middlemore harmonious unfolding of the personality."

What Ministers Say.

Professor Munsterberg, to get first-hand information, asked the heads of hundreds of big businesses what were commonplace village in Perthshire. It had no history, and, for the eye, it had no past. Not a church or a house in it tempted a lingering glance, and for beauty you must turn to the broad strath, with its red soil and silver oats, "modern" courses. But it showed with hand information, asked the heads of beauty you must turn to the broad tarian lore of its "commercial" or hundreds of big businesses what were strath, with its red soil and silver oats, to them the "particular psychological to the pine woods which made the air qualities which from the standpoint of fragrant in its dilatory summers, to the turn to the broad tarian lore of its "commercial" or "modern" courses. But it showed, with a difference in the proportions, the qualities which from the standpoint of the turn to the broad tarian lore of its "commercial" or "modern" courses. But it showed, with a difference in the proportions, the turn to the broad tarian lore of its "commercial" or "modern" courses. But it showed, with a difference in the proportions, the turn to the broad tarian lore of its "commercial" or "modern" courses.

The experiment failed, and could learn in the "public school" (as we called it, with a finer sense of words than the southern usage) as much vears could assimilate. Our plutocracy of living. manufactured jute, but their sons sat, "In one factory in which a certain without a sense of incongruity, on impulse which maintained the ambifor applied psychology, with special the place, and twenty years ago it still ship and influence, and found a society work, but who would consider it an would pass the villas of the great, and imbibed. They were received as of work, but who would consider it an would pass the vihas of the great, and implosed. They were received as of questioned Powell closely. His charged the intellectual aristocracy questioned Powell closely. His charged the place, and they found, at the intellectual aristocracy of the place, and they found, at the intellectual aristocracy of the place, and they found, at the intellectual aristocracy of the place, and they found, at the intellectual aristocracy of the place, and they found, at the intellectual aristocracy of the place, and they found, at the intellectual aristocracy of the place, and they found, at the intellectual aristocracy of the place, and they found, at the intellectual aristocracy of the place, and they found, at the intellectual aristocracy of the place, and they found, at the intellectual aristocracy of the place, and they found, at the intellectual aristocracy is a possible to the place of the and disappeared into the clouds. The village slater had a son who was, we gineers would devote themselves to the were convinced, the rising advocate in problems of vocational selection and Edinburgh. What gave him still greatappointment, others would specialise er prestige, however, was the rumor on problems of fatigue, efficiency, and that he had written the best text-book Such a well-schooled on Roman law, and he was to be seen specialist, if he spent a few hours in any day at holiday times, smoking his a workshop, or a few days in a factory pipe, and "cracking" in the slater's a worksnop, of a few days which might yard. In the carpenter's shop across refer exclusively to the psychological the way, it was at first a literary and factors, and yet which might be more then a scientific tradition that reigned important for the earning and the pro- Among childish memories lives the recollection of how the gentle, whitebuying of new machines or the mere haired old man, standing in his shirt sleeves, with a plane in his hand, was "If this limitless waste of human pointed out by one of the ministers of material, this pitiable crushing of joy the place as the finest literary critic who the economic output is at last to be could recite the whole of "In Memor-His foreman, who had mared than a careful scrutiny of the ried a teacher in the "public" school classes, on natural science, and their boy, in due course, left one of the newly-founded English college. The "ladder" was in actual fact the railway train which linked the village Let us glance at some of them. In with its provincial metropolis. The into it in the darkness of winter mornings to make the daily journey to the it was found that the usual chance high school, and their number must methods involve an absurd economic have risen, when a system of scholarships came into force, to something like a score. At each station and from each branch line came other groups of children, the girls hardly less numer-When there are children in the home ous than the boys. On one platform pony awaited him on summer evenlars of the high school, the village chil dren met the youth of a big industria ployees. . . . It was evident that It had no rivals or competitors. Two open competition. If these bursaries, the managers felt distinctly that here pleasant and enterprising young ladies which rarely exceeded £30 a year, a problem was touched which must be of highest importance for economic for the daughters of its more thriving of highest importance for economic for the experiment failed, and sity (it used in those days to last a they went sadly back to. Edinburgh, bare six months), it was because the boarding house a young man named "The problem of attention seems to For the boys, no one even dreamed of majority of the students were poor They formed a society men's sons.

frugal and often-abstemious standard industrial operation is rather dangerous they told me that they took no Southern Europeans, especially no Italians and Greeks, because they are heart, and in a snappy, right on the same benches as the half-timers and dectors were sent lines of the village school. The senior ree, sort of a way asked to have a civil service examination and was a civil service examination and was a civil service examination and was a surveyor in the employ of the city under a different name. He not only the company offered to accommodate lands. Were almost invariably gradutoo hasty and careless in their moves dren of ministers and doctors were sent lands, were almost invariably gradu-ments, while they gladly fill the places to risk their refined manners among ates. They brought with them to the knew that he had been saving up to, the mob, and it is a nice question village something of the distant fame whether they lost as much as they cer- of Edward Caird or Lord Kelvin. They whether they lost as much as they cer- of Edward Caird or Lord Kelvin. They much surprised because of his general he was so consistently good that he tainly gained. It was the tradition of came to occupy a position of leaderthe school "scaled," the children, hurrying home—farmers' and crofters' ing to hope in their attainments and indered the cneck. That was the last sation. One envious hyprocrite whisrying home—farmers' and crofters' ing to hope in their ready after a due testwalked in the ways of its fathers. When critical indeed of their attainments and indorsed the check. That was the last rying home-farmers' and crofters' ing to honor in their persons the check and skipped away. It was a sons together—to an outlying hamlet, thought and learning which they had forgery. schooldays in the old common school, manse and by the doctor's fireside, men whereby he was the loser attracted which throve before the era of educa- who may have been their comrades in their attention first and then their tion acts. On the left of the Perth the classrooms of the university. In suspicious wonder, They asked him Similar expectations might be road lived a colonel who had been that atmosphere of respect, in a society why he was so lenient in not wishing through the Mutiny. On the right was which honors knowledge even more to press the hunt. Powell declared he a dazzling person who had talked than success, they kept the keenness knew of a young fellow who had done with Indian viceroys, and now would of their minds alive. There was scope the same thing and had not meant to portation companies. with indian viceroys, and now would of their little village school for the do it. The forger, he said had afterin the ordinary workshop and store. their schooldays in rooms filled with genuine teacher's ambitions. There are ward repented and reformed. The in the ordinary workshop and their schoolass in rooms from the headmasters of village schools whose police sneered to themselves, began an if such a new group of engineers were strange vases and bronzes from the headmasters of village schools whose police sneered to themselves, began an

Sergeant-Major Under General French

Veteran of Boer War Who Lost Health on the Veldt Tells Experience.

Good Advice for All Who Have Indigestion or Stomach Disorders,

In his home at Waldegrove, N. S. no one is better known ethan Sergt.-Major Cross, late of the Fourth Queen's Own Hussars. Speaking of the ill-effect of a campaign upon a man's constitution the sergeant-major writes: 'I served under General French during the late Boer war, in the capacity of sergeant-major. It was perhaps owing to a continued diet of bully beef, hard-tack and bad water, but at any rate my stomach gave entirely eat nothing without the greatest suf- least when he straightened up from Sage costs only 50 cents at all drug me much, and since leaving the ser- showed a very odd expression and his mended them to others and in every his imprisonment for a former 'job.' case the result has been similar to Then he died. mine.

Quick, sure results attend the use of Dr. Hamilton's Pills. They cure pockets of Philadelphia, in the of Dr. Hamilton's Pills. They cure in intown alias for a time was Robert S.

gard their duties with a self-respecting

MEN AWAY FROM THE LIME-

Fine tributes are paid to Captain Scott and his companions in the Cornhill for April. But, says the writer "As we pay tribute to the memory of LIGHT.

sets in the Atlantic

"In the smelting furnaces, in the

NOTHING INCONGRUOUS!

The extraordinary circumstances under which Maeterlinck's play, "Mary Magdalen," has recently been played at orrespondent: our five-franc pieces at the miniature roulette of the casino, in the theatre of which Waris Managing in the theatre of the advised their use. I immediately which 'Marie Magdeliene' was played, procured several boxes and I am and after the performance M. Maurice pleased to say that I now enjoy splen-Maeterlinck went off to referee a prize did health and could not possibly feel fight between a black man and a white better. I can eat with every degree of man. Nothing ever is incongruous on satisfaction and sleep without an ef-The band, for instance, ushered in ing from like complaints, to commence this strange and wonderful Riviera. Marie Magdeleine with Gluck's famous overture to Iphigenia in Aulis. Personally, I could think of no more inappropriate music. But we did not mind; we were on the Riviera. That tives, Limited, Ottawa. Maurice Maeterlinck gave us some at ence, at Nice of all places, proves does not realize it. He is to be marsome genius in him."

"Fruit-a-Tives"

Because They Cured Him and They Will Cure You.

"I have been in Walkerton ousiness for a good many years, and many of my townsmen know that my health, for long periods was precarious My trouble was extreme Nervousness brought on by Indigestion and Dyspepsia, from which I suffered in the most severe form. It was so bad that I could not sleep before about four in the morning. I noticed one of your Nice is thus stated by the Telegraph published testimonials of how someone "Between the acts we went and lost trouble and asked Mr. Hunter, my fort. I strongly advise anyone suffer-> using 'Fruit-a-tives.' "ALEX. McCARTER." Fifty cents a box, 6 for $2.50—trial size, 25c. At dealers or from "Fruit-a-

"Is Jinks well off?" "Yes; but he

Imprisonment of Reformed Burglar Discloses Modern Jean Valjeans

The unmasking of a reformed burg- | As he did so another man on the car lar Charles Whaley of Greenpoint,

L. I., recently brings to mind a police. His plea for mercy was of no avail and he was sent to Sing Sing to serve a five-year term. About fifteen years ago in a Chicago Harry Powell-at least that was the name he went by then-was voted the that expected no costly amusements, most popular young fellow of the and set in their social intercourse a neighborhood.

One night another boarder of the house, a wild sort of a chap, came From the university came back the bustling into the dining-room, where all were at the table discussing the courtesy and obliging ways when he The police got after the case. They to enter into industrial life very soon East which he had ruled. But no one, pride it is to transmit to their elder investigation and found out finally to our vision, ever climbed a ladder scholars and pupil teachers something that Powell had been a bank teller who dollars and fled. The boarders witnessed the sad sight of his arrest. He insisted that he had hoped to lead an honest life and pay back his stealings. He went to Joilet for the full term set by the law for his offence. There was a serious mannered, middle aged man employed by a safe manufacturing concern in New York several years ago. His name was William F. Hinkel and he had been PARISIAN Sage. promoted from the factory because of he displayed in the comprehension of hair troubles. time lock, intricacies and his ability a tremendous success. He called at a phur or any dye. customer liked a safe just bought. He women who desire luxuriant lustrous up poison in the system, coming from place in a distant city to ask how a with the old safe. It was not the sort of a safe Hinkel's It does away with terrible scalp itch concern sold, but inside of three min- over night and causes the hair to grow utes the heavy door swung open in abundance. Hinkel did it before he thought, At fering. The army doctors did not help the knoh he had been turning his face and toilet goods counters. vice I have been very miserable. Some eyes had a startled look. The custo- ters guarantee it. months ago a friend told me he mer stopped in the middle of had been a great sufferer from indi- praises, suspicious for some reason. In gestion until he tried Dr. Hamilton's a letter to Hinkel's employers he told Pills; they cured him. I confess it of the strange look on the face of the was without much faith I bought a marvellous safe opener. Rogue's galbox, but the first dose made me feel lery pictures backed up the suspicion. than I had been for a long Hinkel had been an expert safe robber, time. Dr. Hamilton's Pills complete- but had sworn to live a better life. His ly cured, and now I can eat every- young wife visited him in Auburn thing and anything. I have recom- every week for three of the years of One of the most notorious pickpockets of Philadelphia, whose best platform reached over and arrested the coat-pocket feeler. "You"ll come with me and make insisted the detective. "And I want yo to appear with me so you can substantitate that he had his hand near your pocket."

"Here's my card," said Cleary. "I'll appear if I must really do so, but I don't think the man meant harm." Cleary jumped off the car and was gone before the detective could make up his mind whether to follow him or keep hold of his sure prisoner. Cleary had given up wrongdoing for meal, and in a snappy, "right off the five years at this time. He had passed

> The lieutenant ran down all the clues btainable and was about to confront Cleary when He got to his climax day too late. Cleary through a for eign missions organization obtained a post as chief surveyor on a railroad uilding in India and started East

Any Woman Can Have Beautiful Hair

Hair Ceases, When You Use Parisian Sage.

to stop falling hair; eradicate dandruff habit, without a single failure—each and make women's hair beautiful as one in just three days' time,

It is the only certain destroyer of the unusual intelligence and aptitude the dandruff microbe, the cause of most PARISIAN Sage is most daintily to prospective safe purchasers. Finally not sticky or greasy. It does not conhe was sent out on the road and made tain poisonous sugar of lead or sul-It is a magnificent dressing for was hailed as the "just in time" man, hair that compels admiration and for because something had gone wrong men and children nothing can compare

All druggists and toilet goods coun-

$1,000 REWARD

For information that will lead to the discovery or whereabouts The Neal Cure is the most effective of the person or persons suffer- and safest ever dedicated to the cause ing from Nervous Debility Fits of greater human happiness. There Skin Disease, Blood Poison, yous" which daily are showered upon Genito Urinary Troubles, and Neal Institutes by men redeemed.

LADIES, DON'T MISS THIS GREAT SALE of 500 Fancy Head-Dresses, ready to put on at $1.45 only. The regular price was $2.50.

Also another great sale of 1,000 real Hair Braids, regular $2.50 to $4.00, for $1.45 while they last. We

Fifty Toupees for bald men; all shades, at reduced prices. Get a move on if you want a bargain,

Harriet Hubbard Ayer's toilet

PROF. MICHEEL

Women Wanted ---who want charming homes

A charming home is the outward expression of a woman's sense of beauty - It is not the result of lavish spending.

You can have a beautiful home every room glowing with warmth and cheerfulness and decorated to harmonize with a general color scheme—if you use

"Alabastine" is the twentieth century finish-something vastly better than kalsomine, bepaper or

Wall paper is placed on a layer of paste-

This is nothing more or less than a nursery for germs and insects-Besides most wall paper is saturated with arsenic in sufficient quantities to impair Then ordinary kalsomine is bound to chip, blister, crack, peel or rub off—

It's base is only whiting and animal glue—a combination with no solidifying or sani-

"Alabastine" has antiseptic properties-

Germs cannot live on or in it. Once the walls of a room are coated with "Alabastine" there is no necessity for redecoration after sickness. "Alabastine" has stood the test of time and is to-day more popular than ever-It is more economical than either wall paper or kalsomine and far more sanitary.

Anybody can apply "Alabas-Just mix with cold water and use a flat bristle brush.

With our numerous tints and white any color scheme can be easily and artistically car-

Free Stencils

Our staff of trained decorators will perfect any color scheme for you absolutely free of charge. Also supply free stencils exactly suited for your purpose. Your Hardware or Paint Dealer will supply you with "Alabastine." But write for full particulars, and

THE ALABASTINE CO., LTD.,

53 Villow St. - Paris, Canada.

The Real Three-Day WOMEN, AVOID

Drink Habit Cure The Neal Treatment consists of the administration of a perfectly harmless and purely vegetable medicine taken internally only and without any nypodermic injections. The Neal Treatment and the methods of its administration are pronounced and conceded, by all who have investigated, to be not only ethical and professional, but entirely satisfactory. The sureness and success of the Dandruff Disappears, Falling Treatment in all cases has been demonstrated and proved by Doctor Neal, who during the past ten years has successfully cured upwards of five thousand of bad cases of the drink

The Neal Treatment is simple, ye very effective. Doctor Neal, after many years of the most painstaking professional and thorough study, exto describe minutely their advantages perfumed. It is an ideal preparation periment and investigation, has found and demonstrated that the drink habit instead of being a disease or an inherited affliction, is due to the stored-

> After making this discovery and demonstration he found the antidote for alcoholic poison. The administration of this antidote results in the neutralization of the poison. Thus anti-doted and neutralized, the poison is eliminated from the system, desire, appetite and craving for drink s at once destroyed or lost.

This is all accomplished in each case in from one to thirty-six hours depending entirely upon the physica and mental condition of the patient With this accomplished, nature, aided by the recuperative and building-up treatment, soon asserts its power, and at the end of three days the patient returns to his home in a normal and condition, ing from Nervous Debility, Fits, is a buoyant air in the "God-bless 78 St. Alban Street, Toronto.

OPERATIONS

Many Unsuccessful - And Worse Suffering Often Follows. Mrs. Rock's Case A Warning.

The following letter from Mrs. Orville Rock will show how unwise it is for women to submit to the dangers of a surgical operation when often it may be avoided by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She was four weeks in the hospital and came home suffering worse than before.

Here is her own statement. Paw Paw, Mich. - "Two years ago 1 suffered very severely with a displacehome suffering worse than before. My mother advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I did. Today I am well and strong and do all my own housework. I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and advise my friends who are afflicted with any female complaint to try it." - Mrs. ORVILLE

Rock, R. R. No. 5, Paw Paw, Michigan. If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable

For thirty years it has been the stand dard remedy for women's ills, and has restored the health of thousands of suffering women. Why don't you try it?

Bureau of Engraving PROCESS ENGRAVERS LINE AND HALF-TONE ETCHING 436% RECHMOND STREET, PRONE 3680