The old North Street Church was the starting point of Methodism in this district. Among other churches which owe their origin to the earnthe Colborne Street Church, now one of the leading and most prosperous charges in the city. Nearly 75 years ago Colborne Street Church commenced as a mission on the edge of the town. It was located on St James street, between colborne and Waterloo, and the land adjoining the church lot to the north was densely wooded. The mission itself was a frame building, neat and well-ken but small and inadequate for the growing congregation of the day.

Years of progress since that time have left the charge in the splendid position it holds today. The con-gregation, numbering more than 500.

Lieut.-Governor Cockshutt Will Speak To Gathering in Victoria Park.

In the first troubled years following the war, the public celebration of Dominion Day gave way to commemoration of events outstanding during the four years of strife. Mindful of the record of her sons n the war, and proud of her status as a nation within a nation, Canada is yet unwilling to allow one whit of her own history and tradition to be-come obscured by her empire record of late years. Canada is a mature nation and a strong, but it has not yet attained either maturity or
