A LONG-SUFFERING HUSBAND. Oliver John Schoolcraft's Persistent but Unsuccessful Endeavors to Reclaim HIS Wife.

LONDON, Oct. 29 .- Oliver John Schoolcraft, of New York, offered a petition in the Admiralty Division to-day, before Justice Jean, for a divorce from his wife. Schoolcraft is from New York. He came to England in 1880 to study theology, and also began to study the charms of Eliza Beauchamp, a young woman of the class which Cream set out to exterminate with strychnine pills. Eliza made such an impression on him that, although he was aware of the indiscriminate tendency of her affections, he concluded to win her for himself, and was married to her on the Isla of Leaser in 1881. While are the late of Leaser in 1881. dency of her affections, he concluded to win her for himself, and was married to her on the Isle of Jersey in 1881. While pursuing his studies at Heidelberg Oliver placed his wife in a school with the view of hav-ing her properly trained for her new station in life. Eliza did not take kindly to syntax and vul-gar fractions and the next thing that the worthful American heard about his gar fractions and the next thing that the youthful American heard about his better or worse half, was that she had taken flight to Berlin. Still wrapped up in her charms sud anxious to reclaim her, Oliver hastened to Berlin where he found his wife having a lively time with the sports of that capital. He induced her to come back with a promise to reform, and for a time, they dwelt together like turtle doves. This halcyon period did not last long, and Eliza again disappeared. Her husband led her erring feet back to virtue's path and once more she promised to be honest and true. Again was the promise broken, and when at length she fled to Chicago, Schoolcraft, grown tired of such frequent honeymoons, and apparently thinking his wife was beyond saving, gave up the feverish chase. He alleges in his petition that Eliza is living in the World's Fair city with one Ruhmer, known as "Wild West Bill," and that they pass for husband and wife. Schoolcraft has been ordained as a minister of the Church of England, and does not want any more bother on account of Eliza. There was no defence to the suit, and the court granted a rule nist.

It baffles the efforts of the most interested municipalities to bring the dischased the projected Ottawa & Parry Sound railway, which will be connected with the Canada Atlantic & Ottawa railroad and extended to Georgian Bay, where it will meet the steamers of Lakes Michigan, Superior and Huron, in a direct line from West to East between Montreal and the Soo. This will lessen the water route from Chicago and the Western States to the Atlantic by 450 miles. As this overland route, from Parry Sound to Montreal, is 150 miles less than from Buffalo to New York, there will be a total saving of six hundred miles.

> DEPEW'S IMPRESSIONS. What He Saw at Chicage and His Opinions

Thereon. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26.—Chauncey M. Depew spoke this evening at the Academy of Music, under the auspices of the Union League Club, to an audience that taxed the huilding to its greatest capacity. The speech was an oration in favor of protection and the principles of the Republican party. In the course of his address Mr. Depew said: "The most impressive sight I ever saw in my life was 150,000 people gathered together in one building during the Chicago Columbian dedication. I saw a million or two, more or less, on led to win to her on spursuing placed his of havfor her did not not with no rags. Everything indicated that they represented a happy people and a phenomenally prosperous country, and in that building I listened to the ablest Republican speech I ever heard delivered, by Henry Watterson, of Kentucky. Dr. Watterson is the ablest Democrat in the country to-day, and introduced the free trade plank in the Chicago platform. Yet Watterson, in the glowing oratory of the South, described the phenomenal growth and prosperity of the country since the civil war. It was a proud event and calling upon the world to look upon their prosperity.

Rev. Dr. John Hall and Rev. Robert Russel Booth have resigned from the Board of prouder of the Chicago platform. Theological Seminary, as the result of complications following the Seminary's dispute with the Presbyterian Church.

LABOR QUESTIONS.

Rt. Hon. Joseph Chamberlain Contributes a Careful Article to the Nineteenth Century.

London, Oct. 28.—The Rt. Hon. Joseph Chamberlain has an article in the Nineteenth Century for November, on the labor question. It treats at length of the relations of the Government to the laboring population, and condemns unsparingly the "Laissez Faire" policy of the orthodox economists and their disciples among the legislators. The adoption of a purely negative attitude, says Mr. Chamberlain, or meeting with destructive criticism well meant suggestion to ameliorate the condition of the masses with the proposing of any alterations, is neither ate the condition of the masses with the proposing of any alterations, is neither statesmanlike nor just, and will deservedly involve the defeat and discredit of any party adopting it. Although careful and comprehensive the article contains no new ideas. It defines clearly, however, the attitude in which Mr. Chamberlain wishes Unionists to stand in their relations to seal. Unionists to stand in their relations to early and McCarthy, as trustees. After the split in the Irish party and after the deaths of Parnell and Biggar a fight arose over the ownership of the fund, it being claimed by both sections. On Wednesday last Archbishop Croke sent £50 to the fund for the relief of evicted tenants, and in a letter so-cepting the donation, McCarthy declared that the fund should be taken from the hands of the Paris bankers and confided to three houest men not connected with either side of the Irish controversy, until the agreement as to its disposal is concluded. Timothy Harrington has signified that he unconditionally agrees that Archbishop Croke be one of the three new trustees. If the McCarthyites agree to this, there will be little further trouble regarding the fund.
