THIRTY-NINE OCCUPATION OF. Four of the Great Powers at Candace Attitude. Warlike Preparations Greece Will Carry out an Annexation.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—A Times from Candace, dated day, says that at 3:15 from H.M.S. Revenge, Rear-Admiral Harris, commander, the launch being Lieut. Nelson. Sub-Lieut. Hunt landed with a detachment, who were drawn next came launches from Grey and Barfield, followed by the Austrian, Russian and put in an appearance. The pleasant and the scene highly picturesque. The did not make any serious kind. The British force of 2000 men, was met by general Billotti, who was as well as the military. From the Constantinople the Constantianople sailors of the vessel then marched to the island of Candace, where the order of precedence in British forces occurred. The great majority of the Candace population seemed agitated with the occupation of the powers. Many of the islanders were disheartened. It was stated that the occupation of Candace should take place as early as possible. The troops will proceed upon the Christiania store place.

Mr. C. Bazet drew attention to the unsatisfactory state of the law on mortgages, and moved the following resolution, which was seconded by Mr. A. McKinnon and carried: "That this meeting draw the attention of our members to the present mortgage law, and impress upon them the necessity of some alteration which shall protect the mortgagee from the present unjust state, by which the property mortgaged is not sole collateral for the debt; also that they should endeavor to secure the abolition of the mortgage law."

Mr. Horn moved "that our members be instructed to oppose the system of granting bonuses." This was seconded by Mr. C. Bazet and carried. Moved by the Rev. Mr. Evans, Mr. A. Blythe and carried, "that the secretary forward copies of the resolutions to our members and the press."
