Washington Pressmen Astounded at Growth of Canadian West.

Humboldt, Sask., June 29.—Sunshine followed the rain yesterday and the Washington correspondents were favored with delightful weather before Dauphin was reached. The whole town turned out to greet the visitors, and after a pleasant drive through fertile fields, nearly 100 sat down to a magnificent banquet at the King's hotel, which was presided over by Mayor Hederley. Excellent speeches were made by leading citizens, and some of the visitors, in which Anglo-American unity and continuance of the friendly relations between the Republic and the Dominion were strongly urged, and surprise expressed by the newspapermen at the growth and development of the country. The party broke up at midnight, when the Canadian Northern was taken for Battleford.

Gravest Rumors Afloat as to The Loyalty of The Army---Admiral Kruger's Squadron's Strange Delay in Hurrying to The Scene.

T. PETERSBURG, June 29.—It is reported that the volunteer fleet cruiser Saratoff has been burned at Odessa. Admiral Kruger's squadron is expected to arrive at Odessa tonight. His orders are to summon the Kniaz Potemkine to surrender, and, on refusal, to sink her, after which he is to assist in restoring order in the town. EMPEROR DECLARES A STATE OF WAR.

The Emperor has issued the following ukase, addressed to the ruling senate:.. "In order to guarantee public safety and to terminate the disorders at Odessa and neighboring localities, we have found it necessary to declare a state of war in Odessa and district, and to invest the commander of the troops in the military district of Odessa with the rights of military authority and special rights of civil administration for the defence of order and public tranquility." BATTLESHIP FIRING ON THE TOWN.

London, June 30.—The Odessa correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, in a despatch filed at 11:29 o'clock is not in sight, says that the Kniaz Potemkine is firing on the town, and that Admiral Kruger's squadron STRANGE DELAY OF THE LOYAL FLEET.

St. Petersburg, June 30,—3:45 a. m.)—A despatch which arrived here early this morning from Sebastopol announced that a squadron of battleships—the Tri Sviatitelia, Sinope and Rebstislav—with a cruiser and several torpedo boats, only started for Odessa at 8 o'clock last evening. This explains the non-appearance of the squadron at Odessa, but it is difficult to conjecture the reasons for the delay in the departure of two days at such a critical juncture.

The most alarming stories involving the unreliability of the troops are being reported.

Precautions to keep the news from the public have been in vain, the revolutionaries and the liberals everywhere spreading it by word of mouth, and within twenty-four hours it will be known in the uttermost confines of European Russia. When it reaches the armies in Manchuria it is bound to create a deep impression.

At the admiralty the orders sent to Admiral Kruger were not unanimously approved. Among others, Vice-Ad-Skrydloff openly expressed the opinion that Admiral Kruger's bluejackets would not fire on their comrades on the Kniaz Potemkine, but that they, too, might revolt should they be ordered to shoot.
