Six Months—New Lecture Courses.

The Council of the College of Pharmacy finished its work of the first meeting by two sessions yesterday. The principal business of the day was the appointment of a Registrar-Treasurer in place of Mr. Geo. Hodgetts, resigned. The Recentive and Financial Committee's report recommending the appointment of Mr. J. T. Liewis of Toronto until the meeting, next August was adopted. The meeting next Anches was adopted. The other applicants for the position were: F. T. Harrisch, Torontoj D. A. White, Woodstock; C. R. Sneath, Penetang: J. T. Pepper, Hamilton; W. Lloyd Wood, Toronto; H. H. Curtis, Kingston.

It was moved by Messrs. Sanders and D'Avignon that expert accountants should be employed to andit. the college's books since its inception, with a view to investigating the statements made regarding alleged crookedness in the finances. The motion was lost.

At the afternoon session it was decided to institute two courses of lectures next fall and winter each lasting 24 months and commencing in October. The fees are to be $40 for the junior and $60 for the senior class. It was also decided that new diplomas be issued to those who had attended the lectures and passed the final. A committee was appointed to enquire into the expediency of making alterations in the system of conducting the college.

—Many of our tralesmen are all the time grumbling about "business being dull" and "nothing daing," particularly the photographers. One photo gallery is rushing business the whole time, simply because they turn out the best work in the city and at the lowest prices. THOSE BURNED NOTES.

Tm. Solby Arratgned for Forgery-The Case of Compounding Before the Jury. When Mr. Justice Falconbridge took his seat in the Criminal Assizes yesterday, the Grand Jury presented true bills against Wm. Selby in three different cases of forgery, the Selby in three different cases of forcery, the amount of the promissory notes being $4000, $1500 and $3000 respectively. Being arraigned he pleaded not guilty and was ready for trial. Crown Counsel Lount asked for a continuance until next Assizes, to which Mr. B. B. Osler, the prisoner's counsel, objected, but His Lordship ruled for the Crown. Mr. B. B. Osler, the prisoner's counsel, objected, but His Lordship ruled for the Crown. Mr. Robert Fleming, wholesale wood dealer, 11 Bloorestreet west, and Mr. Samuel Frazer, builder, Davenport-road, gave their bonds for $1150 each that the accused would appear when wanted. Selby went out with his bondsmen. His Lordship had a good word for the petit jurors in discharging them from attendance at court: "I have observed with satisfaction and pride your consideration of the cases brought before you, some of them the highest crimes before you, some of them the highest crimes known to the law. In the name of the country The Court adjourned until this forencon, The Court adjourned until this forenoon, when prisoners will be sentenced.

A POETIC ROMANCE

BY J. H. McNAUGHTON.

"The reader is lured onward shrough this forest romance as if led by the hand of the charming Onnalinda hersel."

'Onnalinda' sustains its interest from first to last. Strange to say, the tale is the pleasanter reading for being in metre, and the reader is beguiled by the silvery ring of the xerie." West minister Review. No. carts.

'One is filled with a fuller sense of simple delight and gratitude by such a charming poem as 'onnalinda. We have not read a poetle romance for many a day and year which takes our fancy more completely." —Londo Literary World, No. 8%.

In one important feature—its perfect adaptation for reading in public or to the social circle—"Osnathna' is unique among poetle romances: the rapidly recurring incidents portrayed in melodious and picture among poetle romances: the rapidly recurring incidents portrayed in "Onnalina" we take the following brid extracts from leading fournals:

The Toronto Daily Mait (Dec. 31, 1887). "The poem is an epic, which is at order grand in conception, and full of those pathetic and dramatic incidents peculiar to all forest romances. Mrs. Brown-Pond impersonated the nettyo simplicity, romance and pathetic incidents in the life of the heroine Onnalinda with such a power of imagination, hearty of expression and grace, that the androne were contranced and enraptured."

The Toronto Empire (Dec. 31, 1887): "The poetic romance of Onnalinda certainly gives Mrs. Brown-Pond grace scope for her abilities. It possesses such animation of movement that even its perusal capitysates the reader, but his interest in it is intensified when it is interpreted with the power of delineation and keen dramatic lineight possessed by Mrs. Brown-Pond was briefly introduced by President Wilson. The poon to which she devoted her attention as data high order of metr. Several passages of great beauty and dramatic power were among the partereal."
