CALL OFF JUNIOR O.H.A. GAME Galt Finishes Well On Milton WITH WOODSTOCK TUESDAY

Water-Covered Ice Responsible and Manufacturers' League Will Be Compelled to Wait Until Thursday to Start Instead of To-Night

Springlike weather for the past week here makes it impossible to stage opening hockey games in the O. H. A. junior series with Woodstock to-morrow night and to-night in the Manufacturers' The ice surface at the Jubilee Rink esembles a lake, while the board floor at the Westminster Rink, where the Manufacturers' League stage their games, is exposed in many places. Postponing the junior O. H. A. game in a measure is a Godsend for the locals, as they have thus far been unable to get any practice on ice whatsoever. As it is they will be compelled to play their first game at Tillsonburg on Friday night with little of any work-out, unless cold weather sets in immediately. The first game of the season will probably be played on Friday, when the intermediates tackle St. Thomas here.
