ANNOUNCEMENT

TO THE PUBLIC: We have decided that on the 1st of November, 1913, we will commence a STRICTLY CASH BUSINESS. In many ways we regret to make this change, as custom has established the credit system and it has gone to such an extreme that in some instances it is thought to be almost impossible to do business without the furnishing of the extra capital for the convenience of our customers.

OBITUARY

MRS. ELIZA DONNELLY. Mrs. Eliza Donnelly, widow of the late Samuel Donnelly, passed peacefully away at her home at Port George, Monday, Oct. 13. Mrs. Donnelly was a member of the Methodist church for thirty-five years. She was beloved and respected by all who knew her. She suffered greatly with cancerous trouble and longed to go and be at rest with her Saviour, whom she faithfully served. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Armitage of Lawrencetown, 23:10. Mrs. Donnelly was a daughter of the late Wm. Parks of this place, and was seventy years of age. The surviving members of the family are one step-son Melbourn Donnelly, one brother and one sister, Capt. James Parks and Mrs. Willett Oliver of this place. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved family, especially the young man left entirely alone.

Bishop are attending the Annual Maritime Convention of the United Baptist denomination at Amherst. The Thanksgiving season has brought many home. Among them are Misses Bancroft, Miss West, Miss Hazel Balcom, Aubrey Whitman and L. Whyard. The Methodist ladies are having a Harvest Supper, Monday evening, the 20th inst., and Rev. Mr. Brown will lecture immediately afterwards, on his recent travels. Rev. and Mrs. Earle were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Armitage and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Longley. They have recently returned from China and bring tidings of good work being done. The services on Sunday were well attended and rendered helpful by excellent music. A duet in the morning at the Baptist church deserves particular mention. It was rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hunt of Somerville, Mass. The selection was an arrangement of "Love Divine, all Love Excelling." The tenor and soprano voices blended beautifully and were of unusually good quality. The sermon was practical and taken from the 4th Psalm, by Rev. H. Balcom. The Methodist church was tastefully decorated with autumn leaves, corn and cut flowers, and a full house listened to an excellent sermon by Rev. N. Brown, a former pastor.
