

—You can gain a plenary Indulgence as often as you visit a Franciscan church on this day and say some prayer according to the intention of the Holy Father. It is understood that you receive worthily the holy sacraments of confession and communion. The first plenary Indulgence you can gain for yourself, and all the others for the poor souls in Purgatory.

The Portiuncula, near Assisi, is a very famous for devout pilgrimages. The chapel, like the holy chapel of Loretto, is enclosed in the middle of a spacious church, annexed to a large convent of Franciscans.

—The indulgence of the Portiuncula has been obtained, some years ago, for the basilica of St. Anne de Beaupré, and may be gained by fulfilling the ordinary conditions from midday, August 1, till nightfall August 2.

The following indulgences may also be gained by persons visiting the shrine of St. Anne de Beaupré.

1^o A plenary indulgence, applicable to the Souls in Purgatory, granted to all the faithful of both sexes, who, being truly contrite and having confessed their sins, will receive holy communion in the church of St. Anne de Beaupré, and will pray there for the propagation of the Faith, and according to the intention of the Sovereign Pontiff. (Indult of February 9, 1873.)

2^o A Plenary Indulgence granted for fifteen years by His Holiness Pope Innocent XI, in 1685, to all who should visit St. Anne's church, in the day of the Feast; this Indulgence was renewed to all perpetuity by Pope Pius VI.

3^o An indulgence of seven years and seven quarantines granted to all the faithful who, being truly contrite, will visit the church of St. Anne de Beaupré, and pray therein for some time with devotion, according to the above intentions. (Decree of October 15, 1871.)
