

Whitby Presbyterial Society.— To Cote's Reserve, 640 lbs. of clothing for women and the old and feeble, consigned to Rev. C. W. Whyte.

480 lbs. of clothing, quilts, etc., have been sent to Round and Crooked Lakes Reserve to meet the deficiency in Rev. Hugh McKay's supplies, being contributed by a member of auxiliaries in different presbyteries.

The Mission Bands in Toronto Presbyterial Society, Goderich, Cobourg, Hamilton, Caledonia, etc., sent gifts and prizes for the children in the schools in Central India.

C. M. JEFFREY,
Sec. of Supplies.

Acknowledgment of Clothing.

FROM MISS MACLAREN.

Birtle, Dec. 14, 1894.

We are carrying on the school on the half-day system since Mr. Gilmour came, half of the larger girls staying out in the morning, the other half in the afternoon. They have been making under-wear for the boys out of that fine substantial flannel sent us last winter from Glengarry. This afternoon they have got a mat under-way, and will continue until each girl has made one for her mother. I find it a great incentive to exertion to allow the first one to be given to mother.

The clothing which arrived a long time ago, and which should have been acknowledged, and gratefully acknowledged long ago too, was as satisfactory as it could possibly be. The boots ! How can I thank the Hamilton friends for that splendid supply of boots. I sometimes wonder how I have got the children through without boots in the past, but we are well provided for in that and all other lines this year, and some over for the old Indians.

Now about that beautiful carpet. If any Mission Band had
