

What Have I Learned.

1. That it is not always wise nor safe to wish to be like other people.
2. That when we are in doubt or difficulty we should pray.
3. That God sometimes punishes men by giving them what they want.
4. That we should be careful not to reject Christ as our King.

Westminster Question Book.

HOW SHALL I COME.

"One day I was in the school-room teaching the little children to sew; the older girls were writing on their slates. One of them suddenly called, 'Teacher! teacher! can Jesus save me now?'"

"I said, 'Yes, my dear, he will save you this moment if you will come to him.'" "How my heart beat to hear her question?"

"How shall I come?" she asked, and the tears ran down her cheeks."

"My own eyes were full of tears too as I said, 'Come with me, Lai;' and I took her into my bedroom. We knelt down and prayed. I asked Jesus to help her give her heart to him. She prayed too, a short prayer, and then burst out with a glad shout: 'Jesus saves me! He smiles! How I love him!'" The next day two more came, and by and by a few more. Seven of my dear girls gave their hearts to Jesus, and then they became a little missionary band to lead their fathers and mothers to Jesus."

THE OFFERING.

We children come to Thee,
 Master and Friend;
 Into our hearts, we pray
 Thy Spirit send.
 Let us Thy helpers be,
 To all, on land or sea,
 Thy bond or free.
 'Tis little that we own,
 Master and Friend;
 That little brought to Thee,
 Will farther spend.
 Take then our love and prayer,
 Wing them to do and bear
 Good everywhere.

Weil Spring.

HYMN.

TUNE.—America.

Sound, sound the truth abroad,
 Bear ye the words of God,
 Through the wide world;
 Tell what our Lord has done,
 Tell how the day is won
 And from his lofty throne
 Satan is hurled.

Far over sea and land,
 'Tis our Lord's command,
 Bear ye his name;
 Bear it to every shore;
 Regions unknown explore;
 Enter at every door;
 Silence is shame.

Speed on the wings of love.
 Jesus who reigns above,
 Bid us to fly;
 They who his message bear
 Should neither doubt nor fear,
 He will their friend appear;
 He will be nigh.—Sel.

POWER OF THE BIBLE

In India, when a man becomes a Christian, he often meets great opposition from his family. But we have lately heard of one case in which it was not so.

There was a young Hindu, who was determined, at whatever cost, to profess his faith; so he went home to tell his wife. He began with so much fear and hesitation that she was a little alarmed, and asked, "What is it?" He said he had been reading the book of the Christians, and had come to see that their own religion must be false.

She said, "You don't really mean to say you are a Christian?"

Yes, that was what he was. She ran away to the little box, the one private thing that belonged to her, in which she kept her treasures, and, bringing out a Bible, she said, "I, too, have been reading this book, and have come to the conclusion that it contains the true religion." A few days after that both husband and wife professed their faith together and were publicly baptized in the name of Christ.
