

attention of all for upwards of an hour. He pointed out what we have done in the past and, at the same time, what opportunities we have lost as a church owing to our neglect; from this drawing the lesson that now is the time to take possession for Christ of what will, in the future, be the most important part of our Dominion. In closing, he referred to the good service rendered during the past summer by one of our number, Mr. D. McD. Clarke, who was engaged in mission work out at Calgary.

At a subsequent meeting, Mr. W. J. McKenzie gave a graphic account of the work he has carried on in Labrador for the last year and a half, under the auspices of the Association. Mr. McKenzie's devotion to the work, as evinced by his sacrificing a session's study in order to remain a winter in Labrador, as well as his heroic service and strict economy in financial affairs, are deserving of cordial recognition at the hands of the society.

In addition to the maintenance of the mission in Labrador, the Association has also undertaken the partial support of the Rev. Fulton Coffin, in Couva. And in order to meet the expense of these two fields it is desirable that those who have subscribed to the funds of the Society, should, as soon as possible, forward their contributions to Mr. George Miller, Secretary-Treasurer of the society.

At future meetings reports of students who have been labouring in mission fields during the summer will be received, brief abstracts of which we hope to lay before our readers in subsequent issues.

---

Another very important feature in our college life is the Prayer Meeting, which we are happy to say is well attended. It is held on Tuesday evening, immediately before the Missionary Meeting, and has been marked by a spirit of earnestness and vitality.

---

A visitor to Pine Hill would be struck by the multitude of meetings in which the students seem to delight; but among the numerous gatherings to which we are summoned by the clang of the bell, not the least important and interesting are those of the debating society. Here anything and everything comes in for