

The Carnegie Foundation has donated to McGill University $1,000,000 in recognition of the institution's devoted service and sacrifice in Canada's share in the war.

Mrs. Frank Oliver, of Edmonton, has offered to McGill University $10,000 to establish a scholarship in memory of Lieut. Allen Oliver, M.C., killed at the Somme.

OBITUARY

FRED. S. SNIDER, M.D.

One of Norfolk's most prominent and most widely known citizens passed away on 10th February, in the person of Dr. Fred. S. Snider, sheriff of the county. He was born in Windham, and after graduating from McGill Medical College returned to Norfolk, practising in Simcoe, Teeterville and Waterford successively. Dr. Snider was for four years a member of the county council and was warden in 1898. He contested the north riding successfully in the Conservative interests in 1902, and was appointed sheriff about 1909. Judge Snider, of Hamilton; Wm. Snider, of Toronto; Russell Snider, of Winnipeg, and Arthur Snider, of Swift Current, are brothers. He married Miss Carrie, daughter of the late Dr. Douglas, of Simcoe, who, with two children, Douglas, of Walkerville, and Miss Leila, at home, survives.

WILLIAM HALL CARLETON, M.D.

Dr. William Hall Carleton, a medical practitioner who was well known in Toronto and Thornhill, Ont., passed away recently at his residence, 154 Danforth Ave., Toronto. He had been ill for a year and was in his 63rd year. Dr. Carleton was a son of the late William Carleton, for many years a school teacher in Ontario, and was 63 years of age. After graduation from the University of Toronto he taught school for some years, later completing his course in medicine. He had been practising his profession for 32 years, and for 12 years his practice was confined mainly to Thornhill and environs. He was a member of Danforth Avenue Methodist Church and a past-master of the Masonic Lodge at Thornhill. His widow and one son, Dr. G. W. Carleton, and one daughter, Frances, survive. The funeral took place at Mount Pleasant Cemetery.