OUR BULLETIN.

WITH this number commences our Monthly issue of the BULLETIN. We shall try to make its pages the medium through which we present to our members the details of our work. Items of interest, pertaining to Association work and progress in other places will be noted. Definite work for and by young men will be advocated. And the design of all will be to lead men to the Lord Jesus Christ, through the varied agencies, physical, literary, social and religious, of our broad and undenominational Association work. “Hitherto hath the Lord helped us,” and for the future we will “trust and not be afraid.”

ARCHDEACON FARRAR.

THIS distinguished lecturer will in all likelihood arrive at Quebec to-day. The date of his appearance here has not yet been fixed, but it will likely be Tuesday, Sept. 22nd, the subject of lecture being “Napoleon I.” The tickets will be on sale in a few days and the plan of Hall may be seen and seats secured at Nordheimers, King St. east. Admission 50 cents; Reserved Seats 75 cents.

Watch thou in all things.
