AN EMBARRASSING SITUATION.

"THEY ARE TRULY NOBLE INSTRUMENTS. EVERY GREAT ARTIST PREFERS THEM."
CARRENO.

"WEBER IS THE FINEST PIANO I EVER LAID MY FINGERS ON."
RYE-KING.

THE TWO LEADING PIANOS OF AMERICA. WEBER AND STEINWAY CONTRASTED.

"In speaking of these two Pianos, we do not ignore the claims of other makers. The Chickering, Knabes, Decker & Son, Decker Bros., all good commercial Pianos, in the sense in which we speak of commercial pictures as distinct from those that are acknowledged works of art. They are generally well and honestly made, and, being manufactured and sold at a moderate price, give satisfaction to the ordinary purchaser. But the musician, the artist or the connoisseur who would obtain from the Piano the grandest results of which this noble instrument is capable, must seek these results from either of the two great names that head this article.

"The Weber and Steinway Pianos are universally acknowledged to be the leading Pianos of America. They are not, nor have they ever been, strictly speaking, rivals. In a mechanical sense there is positively little difference between them, and the cost is about the same. Both makers have achieved the utmost limits of perfection so far as durability and good workmanship are concerned, but in respect of tone there can be no comparison between them. The Steinway Pianos doubtless possess great power and sonority, perhaps equal in this respect to Weber, but here the comparison ends. They cannot approach the Weber for purity, richness, and volubility—three qualifications which, combined, give that distinct and perfect articulation which only one hears in vocal organs of the highest order and calibre. Hence all the principal artists of the present day, whether vocalists or instrumentalists, prefer the Weber Pianos for their public performances and private use. They are sympathetic, and capable of giving the various lights and shades of expression in so remarkable a manner as to make them incomparably superior to any other piano of this age."—Spectator.
