JUVENILE BENEFACTORS' ASSOCIA-TION.

This association, which has been introduced into England under the most favorable auspices, is much similar to the popular institu-tion known in France as L'Oeuvre des Patronages. It is worked on the same principles, and for the same purpose, that is to say, to open homes for apprentices and young men, and to care for little street boys in particular. One of the leading spirits in this admirable and useful work is a young Canadian priest, the Rev. E. Piche.

The chief aim of the association is that "youth may minister unto youth," promoting the spiritual well-being and the moral education of the poor by enlisting the generous sympathies of the heart when it is most open to impressions of charity and love of our neighbor.

The association, which is under the special protection of the great St. Vincent de Paul, is approved of by the Holy See, which has attached to it a number of religious and spiritual privileges. The promoters of this good work ask for the co-operation of Canadians, especially as it is their intention to send those under their charge and who desire to emigrate to Canada. The conditions of membership are of easy fulfillment, and entail but the slightest expense. The association issues a monthly publication called "Gems of Charity," which can be obtained on subscribing the small sum of a penny a week, which goes towards the support of the patronage. All those desirous of becoming members will address their communications to the Patronage House, of St. Vincent de Paul, 10 Manor street, Manchester.

COMPLIMENTARY ENTERTAINMENT BY THE CATHOLIC TOUNG MEN'S SOCIETY.

The Literary and Musical Social given by the Catholic Young Men's Society last evening in the Seminary Hall, Notre Dame street, was largely attended and proved an entire The President of the Society, Mr. J. R. McLaughlin, occupied the Chair, and upon the platform were Mr. Bellew, Vice-President of St. Patrick's Society; Mr. Mc-Donald, President of the Young Irishmen's Literary and Benefit Society; Mr. Flannery, President of the St. Ann's Total Abstinence and Benefit Society; Mr. John D. Purcell and Dr. Guerin.

The President in a few well chosen remarks cordially welcomed the audience on behalf of the Society, alluding before sitting down to the object of their organization and its work upon the Catholic young men of the Miss Virginia Mount, in a selection from the popular opera of "Si Jetais Roi," evinced a command over her voice rarely excelled. Her rendition of the solo was fall that could be desired, showing much cultivation and refinement. She was loudly encored. 'The favorite comic vocalist, Mr. W. P. Miss Moylan sang "Way thro' the Wood," and Mr J J Rowan "Farewell," and for an encore Moore's beautiful song, "Believe me of all those endearing young charms." A reading, "Paradise and the Peri," from Moore, by Mr P M Wickham; song, "Meeting of the Waters," by Miss Mount, and a chorus, "Let Erin Remember," by the Mozart Choral Union, brought a most successful concert to a close. Prof. Fowler presided at the plane during the evening with his usual efficiency.

HE RIFLE.

An old volunteer writing to the Gazette of this morning gives some remarkable shooting by two well-known city riflemen as follows: Pvt J W Marks, Sixth Fusiliers, (one of the Wimbledon team for this year,) at 600 yards, with the "Maritini-Henry" rifle, scored 34 points out of a possible 35.

Staff-Sergt Denison, of the same corps, at 500 yards, with the "Snider" rifle, scored consecutive bull's eyes (35 points).

Pvt Marks, at 500 yards, scored 31 points out of a possible 35—making his score at the two distances (500 and 600 yards) 65 points out of a possible 70 points, which I do not think has ever been beaten the world over.

PERSONAL.

Mr Couture, Legislative Councillor, has given his sessional allowance to charity. Mr James Low, late of the Datoe House, Belleville, has been appointed cashier of the Russell House, Ottawa.

Major A Collins will follow in a fortnight. It is not proposed that H R H will proceed to Halifax, but to Quebec. The Messrs. Allan have, however, received instructions that in case of any danger from ice in the Gulf, to send the "Sarmatian" to Halifax.

MBS. LANGTRY.

OLIVE LCGAN'S OPINIONS OF THE BEAUTIFUL AMA-

TEUR. On Saturday evening I went to the Haymarket to see the last appearance of Mrs. Langtry. Not a seat in any part of the theatre could be obtained at the box offices so my friends and I started on a search increasing the salaries of the judges of that among the West End libraries. Everywhere we received the same reply: "Nothing left, everything gone — as great a demand for places as on the first night." At length we succeeded in obtaining a proscenium box in the very topmost storey, with two gentlemen waiting to snatch up the same in case we fastidiously declined it. I may as well frankly state that my American friends were flatly disappointed in her looks, and said she was uglier than her photographs, which they thought in themselves ugly enough in all conscience. I fear I am not in a position to give a very pronounced verdict of my own in respect to Mrs. Langtry's much discussed beauty. I have heard so much praise of her chin and her nose and the curve of her cheek from paint- common, 20c to 25c; medium to good, 27c ers and other indisputable authorities in the world of art that I should deem it an offence against every canon of Raphael and Michael Angelo were I to publicly state what I really think-to wit, that a Dutch girl who used to sell us butter many years ago in the old Philadelphia market was a handsome anticipatory likeness of Mrs. Langtry; and yet no one ever wrote sonnets to that Germanique maiden's eyebrow. It is true the Friends are practical folks; we shall hear, in good time, what they think of Mrs. Langtry. -Philadelphia Times.

WEEKLY REVIEW -- WHOLESALE PRICES.

Since our last, most of the steamers of the early spring fleet have arrived, but comparatively few sailing vessels have as yet put in an appearance, owing to detentions in the gulf by ice. Trade has been a little brisker in all departments of trade and industry, and a very tair spring business is looked forward to with all confidence. The fact that very little freight outside of timber and phosphates is offering at Canadian ports for shipment to Europe has caused shipping agents to advance freights on outward cargoes of heavy merchandise, and the consequence is that prices of imported articles are very firmly maintained. Freights on metals, chemicals, &c., are as high as 20s to 22s per ton despite the large filled, $1 25. immigration into the country, but then the steamers on their return to Europe cannot always secure anything like a full cargo, and are taking what grain they can secure at 6d our reported sales. MONTREAL CATTLE MARKET-MAY 29

The offerings of butchers' cattle were light and prices were held higher in consequence. At Point St. Charles the receipts of shipping cattle were not so large as last week, still a very fair business was done. At Viger Market 130 very fair cattle were under offer. For some choice stock 7c per lb, live weight, was saked, but buyers refused to pay such a price. A sale was, however, reported at 64c. The average range for fine to choice cattle was 6c to egc. Meesrs. Beneit & Emond, city traders, sold 50 head; M Sullivan, Toronto, 39 Price & Delorme, 10, and Batiste Boy, 29. Some stock of medium quality realized 5 to to 53c. The receipts of calves were 150, with sules at $3 to 10.50 each. Some 55 lambs sold at $3 to 6 each and 20 sheep at $7 to 12

MONTREAL HORSE MARKET-May 27. The "pinkeye" scarcely appears to be dying out, at any rate there was a better enquiry for horses the past week both from local and American buyers. The following dealers were operating here since our last —A W Bean, Lawronce, Mass; Jas McGuire, Boston; Jas Pren, Holyoke, Mass; S Stanley, Fall River, Mass; H W Woodbury, Rutland, Vt; C W Cottle, Kittery, Me; F Shield, Boston; E Vanderhoof, Northampton, NY.

MONTREAL COAL MARKET - MAY 25. The market is quiet but steady, prices of both anthracite and bituminous coals being well maintained, the former owing to high prices in the American mining districts and the latter to light receipts by sailing vessels. Prices are as follows :- Stove, Grate, Chestnut and Egg (delivered) $6; Cape Breton steam, $5 50; Pieton, $6; Lower Ports, -Smiths, $7 50 to $8. No Scotch steam or Newcastle Smiths in market.

decreased demand. The decline in prices is partly due to the enormous importations.

-John Reed, while working on board one of the ocean steamers in port yesterday, had his foot crushed by a bale of merchandise. He was taken to the Notre Dame Hospital.
