

HOUSEHOLD TALKS.

OUTSIDE HELP RECONSIDERED.

Great Managers—"Washing Put Out"—Sewing or No Sewing—The Meaning of Clothing—Baking at Home.

GREAT MANAGERS.

Although household traditions always die hard, the on-minging spirit of the age, has breathed on the dry dust of antiquity here and elsewhere, and left our duty clear for us.

BAKING AT HOME.

With the giving out of the washing, sewing, and where it is possible, the mending, time is allowed for the re-establishment of an old custom now too generally fallen into disuse—the making of bread at home.

WASHING PUT OUT.

The first note of woman's emancipation was sounded when the first washing was "put out."

THE COMMON LOT.

There is a place no love can reach, There is a time no voice can reach, There is a chain no power can break,

TO PROLONG THE BEAUTY OF FLOWERS.

For keeping flowers in water, finely powdered charcoal, in which the stalks can be stuck at the bottom of the vase, preserves them surprisingly, and renders the water free from any obnoxious qualities.

AN EMINENT CARDINAL PASSES AWAY.

NEW YORK, April 5.—A special cablegram from Rome to the Catholic Review announces the death of Good Friday, at the age of 61, of Cardinal Thomas M. Martinielli, O.S.A., one of the six cardinal bishops, a member of the Augustinian Order, and one of the most learned of the theologians of the Church.

FAMOUS WOMEN.

It is a significant fact that most of the women who have achieved fame in art, literature, or "affairs" have enjoyed vigorous health.

AN OLD SOLDIER BORN A.D. 1782.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N.Y., April 5.—William Moody, of Gulf Shore, died yesterday, aged 107 years and 25 days. He was a veteran of 1812, coming to this country in 1807. He enjoyed good health until a few days since. He was photographed for the first time on March 1st last.

HEALTH AND ECONOMY.

Health is most important, but economy should be considered. Economy is not a matter of frugality for the baby, the best and cheapest food. Puffy infants grow fat on it, as it is a perfect substitute for a healthy woman's milk.

THE EMPRESS RULES.

SHE GAINS HER POINT AGAINST BISMARCK—COURT INTRIGUES—THE ROYAL BROTHERS TAUGHTLY AGREE TO.

BRESEN, April 8.—Prince Alexander of Battenberg comes to Charlottenburg next Thursday and his betrothal to Princess Victoria takes place early in June. Prince Bismarck has withdrawn his resignation, solely from the consideration that under the domination of Emperor Frederick a marriage so strongly animated the Prussian Conservatives against the Emperor as the marriage question. It now becomes known that the Emperor will impel her helpless husband to withdraw Prince Bismarck without regard to the respect due to the late Emperor or to the national safety.

PREVENTED BY FORCE.

The National League Meetings Dispersed at the Point of the Bayonet—Irish Citizens Arrested by Scores.

KILBUSH, April 8.—On Saturday night some policemen who were trying to prevent the erection of a platform for the meeting announced for to-day were pelted with stones by a mob, and were compelled to charge the crowd. Many civilians were badly injured.

About 6,000 persons belonging to the various league branches of Kilrush assembled at 2.30 p.m. There was a large contingent on horseback. The police, led by Magistrates Walsh and Irwin, charged the crowd, injuring many. A number of triumphal arches were torn down. Father Glynn, of Kilmihil, was attacked by two policemen with rifles. A farmer felled one policeman to the ground with a black thorn stick. A riot being imminent, the Berkshire regiment, with fixed bayonets, led by Capt. Lynch, charged the mob, and many persons were badly wounded.

Order was somewhat restored on the crowd being appealed to by priests and Messrs. Redmond and Cully, members of parliament. Mr. Redmond then attempted to organize the meeting, which had heretofore been unopposed, but was prevented by Magistrate Irwin. Mr. Redmond protested that the Government's action in proclaiming the meeting was illegal, and together with the priests advised the multitude to disperse. Ten persons were seriously wounded with batons and bayonets and two mounted policemen were injured with stones.

Loughrea, April 8.—Mr. O'Brien had his meeting. While the police were dispersing the people, Mr. O'Brien spoke ten minutes. He called the police cowards for not arresting him, instead of ill-treating the people. Mr. O'Brien left the bishop's residence at two p.m., followed by a crowd numbering four thousand persons and took his way to a field outside the town, where a platform had been erected. He was met by an imposing force of police and military which barred the way.

AT THE ALBION HOTEL. The Longest Visit on Record! CONSULTATION FREE TO ALL.

No organization of Medical and Surgical Specialists has ever received such a cordial reception and liberal patronage at the hands of the invalid public and citizens in general as has been bestowed on DR. KERGAN and his Staff. It is indeed gratifying, as it speaks in loudest terms the Respect and Confidence on one side and the Reputation and Ability on the other.

TREATMENT BY CORRESPONDENCE. While we would not for the importance of a personal consultation, yet by our original system of diagnosis as developed in the department, we can, in many cases, diagnose and treat without interviewing the patient.

ADVANTAGES OF WRITING. In consulting by letter the patient is not necessarily obliged to give up his business, and he can, in many cases, be cured by the use of our medicine, and he can, in many cases, be cured by the use of our medicine, and he can, in many cases, be cured by the use of our medicine.

OUR WALKING ADVERTISEMENTS. All letters or extracts of letters received from former patients that are published by us are in accordance with their permission or instructions. $500 will be forfeited if a single misrepresentation is made in our publications, advertisements, etc. We always use full name of patients sending letters for publication unless otherwise requested.

CATARH CURED. Miss Anna Rogers writes: Montreal, March 17, 1888. Dear Dr. Kergan and members of the International Medical Council: I am happy to state that my boy (Henry), whom you examined at the Albion Hotel, and who was cured of his catarrh, is now well and happy, and is able to go to school and play with his friends.

DYSPEPSIA CURED. Jas. Dupuis writes: Quebec, March 20, 1888. J. D. Kergan, M.D. Dear Dr.: At the time I saw your staff I was doubtful about getting cured, as several of the best doctors had failed to relieve me. From the first dose of your medicine I began to get better. I then had confidence, and now, after following your treatment, I am cured. I can eat and sleep as usual, and I feel as well as ever.

FITS CURED. Mrs. C. E. T. writes: St. Johns, Que., March 10, 1888. Dear Doctors: I am Jan. 25, is completely cured by your treatment. He has not had a single spasm since he began, and up until that time he had from 4 to 5 every week. You do not know how thankful I am for what you have done.

FEMALE WEAKNESS CURED. Mrs. A. S. L. of Montreal, the wife of a well known merchant, aged 32, the mother of four children, had for three years past been afflicted with general debility, and menorrhagia. Her back was weak, and she was unable to lift ordinary weights, and she was unable to do any kind of work. She was treated by several of the best doctors, but without success. She was cured by your medicine, and she is now well and happy.

CONSUMPTION CURED. Mr. Joseph Goffarth, Montreal, P.Q., Ont., first consulted us several general practitioners, borrowed the money to pay for a twelve months' course of treatment, which, much to the joy of himself and friends, cured him. Read his certificate: Montreal, Ont., March, 1887. I was afflicted with consumption, and I was treated by several general practitioners, but without success. I was cured by your medicine, and I am now well and happy.

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE. Mr. I. D. Boardman, editor Peters Health Magazine, writes: I was afflicted with consumption, and I was treated by several general practitioners, but without success. I was cured by your medicine, and I am now well and happy.

THE PROOF. We can do present as to our success in the treatment of ALL DYSPEPSIA AND DYSPEPSIA THAT COMES WITHIN THE SCOPE OF OUR SPECIALTY. We have a large number of testimonials from our patients, and we have a large number of testimonials from our patients, and we have a large number of testimonials from our patients.
