EVERFAST STAINLESS HOSIERY*Mercantile Summary.

THE premium on gold at Buenos Ayres was at 209 per cent. on November 4th.

A NUMBER of people in Hamilton have formed a company and are going to bore for natural gas.

THE "Dracena," cattle ship, which left Montreal for Leith, 24th October, put into London on November 10th, having lost 190 out of 200 cattle through heavy weather.

We learn that the Dominion Hosiery Company has made an assignment to Mr. J. B. Laing. This company has been manufacturing hosiery for several years in Toronto. The principal proprietor was Mr. David Lewis, and the manager Mr. Hood.

MR. C. M. TAYLOR, the manager of the Waterloo Mutual Fire Ins. Co. at Waterloo, writes: "Now when the snow apples are rich and mellow and cider flows in place of lager, I beg to hand you my $2 for one year's subscription to your excellent paper."

FROM Dixon Bros., general merchants at Maple Creek in the far West, comes this testimony: "Your happy reminder in the way of a post card came to hand, and we gladly respond by enclosing $2 for subscription to THE MONETARY TIMES, which we at all times find both profitable and interesting."

MR. ALEX. CAVEN, of the Inland Revenue Department at Stratford, says: "Having taken the paper for so long a time, I do not like the idea of cutting loose from you now. Although I am not engaged in the commercial trade, I take very great satisfaction in reading THE MONETARY TIMES."
