MUSHROOM MAGAZINES

Abound in this country. Newsdealers' counters groan under them. Some of them are insignificant. Others grow to prodigious size, and claim enormous circulations.

Thousands of American readers prefer to read magazines whose value has been proved by long experience.

Nearly 3,300 numbers of

have already been published, and today the magazine is more nearly indispensable to intelligent readers than ever. It finds its material in more than thirty of the leading English periodicals, from which it reprints, without abridgement, such articles as are most interesting to American readers. No humane interest lies outside of its field. Its range extends from the weighty articles in the quarterlies to the clever things in Punch.

The magazine prints the best essays, the best fiction, the best verse; it presents fresh discussions of literary, social and religious questions, and gives special attention to international affairs and current events. Its weekly publication enables it to present the articles which it reproduces with great promptness.

The magazine prints annually twice as much material as the four-dollar monthly magazines; and the list of writers represented cannot be equalled by any other single magazine, English or American. The subscription price is SIX DOLLARS a year, postpaid, in the United States, Canada and Mexico. Trial subscriptions, Three months (thirteen numbers) for ONE DOLLAR.
