

- new means or methods of committing Customs offences;

- categories of goods known to be subject of illicit importation, exportation, or transit;

- persons, vehicles, ships, aircraft or other means of transport which there is reason to believe are involved or may be involved in Customs offences;

b. on written request and as promptly as possible:

- any information that can be extracted from Customs declarations and other documents in their possession relating to exchange of goods involving either of the two States, and as to which the requesting State has reason to believe Customs offences exist;

- and duly certified or legalized copies of the said documents.

Article 2

This Protocol enters into force on the first day of the second month following the date of signature.