

SECTION II

The following route may be operated in either or both directions by an airline(s) designated by the Government of Canada:

POINTS IN CANADA	INTERME- DIATE POINTS	POINTS IN SWITZERLAND	POINTS BEYOND
Any point or points	Any point or points	Any point or points	Any point or points

Notes:

1. Any Intermediate Points and/or Points Beyond may be omitted on any or all services, provided that all services originate or terminate in Canada. Points in Switzerland may be served separately or in combination.
2. Transit and own stopover rights shall be available at Intermediate Points and at Points in Switzerland. Stopover rights shall not be available between Points in Switzerland. The designated airline(s) of Canada may, at any point on the specified routes and at its option, transfer traffic between its aircraft without any limitation as to type or number of aircraft, provided that, in the outbound direction, the transportation beyond such point is a continuation of the transportation from Canada and, in the inbound direction, the transportation to Canada is a continuation of the transportation from beyond such point and provided that all flights involved in the transfer originate or terminate in Canada.
3. Fifth freedom rights shall be available beyond Zurich and/or Geneva to the following points to be named by Canada: a) four points from the following countries: Poland, Hungary, Austria, Yugoslavia, b) five points in Asia, including a point or points in India; and beyond, and beyond to Canada, c) a point in Kenya and four points in Africa south of the Tropic of Cancer. Fifth freedom rights shall not be exercised to each specific point beyond simultaneously from both Zurich and Geneva.
