PERSONAL & CONFIDENTIAL

Athens, May 7, 1949.

Your Excellency:
Upon the instructions of my Government I have the honour to inform you informally and again informally the Royal Hellenic Government through Your Excellency that in all probability I shall leave Athens next July to become the Canadian High Commissioner in Australia.
In this course I shall have occasion to express the measure of my deep regret to Your Excellency, to their Excellencies the President and the Vice-President of the Council of Ministers, and to the counsellors good and dear friends whom it has been my privilege to have in leave and glorious Greece.
I take advantage of this opportunity to renew to Your Excellency assurances of my highest consideration.

George Depasle

His Excellency Mr. Constantinos Tsalaris,
Minister of the Royal Hellenic
Department of Foreign Affairs,
Athens.
