

ADJOURNMENT

Leave having been given to revert to Notices of Motions:

Hon. A. Hamilton McDonald moved, with leave of the Senate and notwithstanding Rule 45(1)(g), that when Senate adjourns today it do stand adjourned until Monday, June 28, at 8 p.m.

Honourable senators, originally we planned to meet at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, but in view of the progress that we made in the chamber and in our committees today, it is possible to arrange to sit at 8 o'clock Monday evening. The work for the chamber may not be extensive on Monday evening, but there is a possibility that when we have completed our work in the chamber we may go into committee. Furthermore, many honourable senators have expressed their desire to sit Monday evening rather than Monday afternoon. I understand that many of them have commitments in their home provinces and that it would be more convenient for them if the house were to sit in the evening. I think this adjournment will meet the wishes of the majority of senators, and I am sure we will be able to accomplish our work before Wednesday when we expect to adjourn for the summer recess.

Motion agreed to.

The Senate adjourned until Monday, June 28, at 8 p.m.
