

and I replied that we already had the beginnings of a very fair collection of literary MSS.
including a Tissue-transfer copy of Butler's "Anthem of the Odyssey".

When I reach England I shall set in touch with Mr. Kipling and see what can be done.
I regret to learn of Mr. Blacker's death and look for further news from Dr. Wood.

With kind regards,

Faithfully yours,

Ch. R. Lomas.
