

We beg all the friends of McGill to unite in her cause and to declare that the whole area in which the University is situated must be kept forever inviolate, devoted to the cause of Science - and the increase of knowledge.

We feel secure in leaving our cause in your hands.