

BIBLIOGRAPHICAL, HISTORICAL AND CRITICAL NOTES.		PAGE.
APPENDIX.
I. The voyages of the Northmen.....		123
II. The Cabot voyages .....		127
III. The Portuguese voyages.....		130
IV. Norembegue.....		130
V. Baccalaos on the old maps .....		131
VI. Cartography of Cape Breton, 1527-1632 .....		132
VII. Jacques Cartier off Cape Breton .....		133
VIII. Extracts from narratives of early voyages to Cape Breton .....		137
IX. French sources of information on Cape Breton and Louisbourg .....		141
X. English works, memoirs, and general sources of information respecting Louisbourg, and the sieges of 1745 and 1758.....		146
XI. Maps and illustrations of Cape Breton and Louisbourg, portraits of Wolfe, etc.....		154
XII. Louisbourg medals.....		157
XIII. The Micmac Indians and their language.....		159
XIV. The Acadian French in Cape Breton.....		160
XV. General bibliographical notes.....		162
XVI. Extracts from treaties and other official proclamations, etc., affecting Cape Breton.....		165
XVII. Official statement of the military establishment at Louisbourg in 1753.....		169
XVIII. Statistical statements of the fisheries and commerce of Cape Breton, 1745-1758.....		171

MAPS AND ILLUSTRATIONS.

Part of Cabot's Mappemonde, 1544 .....	9
Facsimile of Nicolas Denys's map, 1672, (Plate 5)—to face page.....	20
French medal struck on foundation of fortress of Louisbourg in 1720 .....	25
Map of British colonies and northern New France, including Cape Breton, and indicating dates of the founding of principal forts in the French possessions, (Plate 1)—to face page .....	60
English medal struck on taking of Louisbourg in 1758.....	75
Admiral Sir Hovenden Walker's cross in Sydney harbour, 1711 .....	110
Cross taken from the French parish church in 1745 and now over the entrance to Gore Hall, Harvard University .....	115
Old cannon, probably of sixteenth century, found at Louisbourg.....	116
Old sketch of entrance of Louisbourg harbour and of the French town in the distance .....	155
View of new village of Louisbourg. App. (Fig. 1—Plate 2.)
Sketch of ruins of old casemates at Louisbourg. App. (Fig. 2—Plate 2.)
Plan of the city and harbour of Louisbourg, indicating the position of New England forces in 1745. App. (Plate 3.)
Plan of the city and fortifications of Louisbourg by R. Gridley. App. (Plate 4.)

ERRATA.

- Page 19, line 8—Omit [Race].
- " 43, " 5—In note 2, for 1761 read 1751.
- " 63, " 4—Insert New before "England."
- " 66, " 4—From foot of text for Abercrombie, read Abercromby.
- " 68, " 2— " " " insert after the word carried, "upwards of 12,000 men besides."
- " 77, " 9—For nine read eleven.
- " 80, " 3—From foot for Wallis DesBarres, read Wallet DesBarres.
- " 98, note 2—For the Ulloas, read De Ulloa's Voyage.