fuller and clearer Light, and contrary to the Inten-tentions of the Author, illustrate that which was intended to be darkned, and in the end only expose his own villainous Defigns, and make him odious to all Men of true Probity and Virtue.

ner to be offered, the year

To W bits ment to the Y of Normal F 3 34-5

Rare Bk. Coll

majen, is to apparent, that could I have feen it frozer, I min boye foared a rest many ether Prouments at Proofs; for you lee this Author gone to the in alm it every, Particular of it is the continue to his Culton) he inters they thip thoic (book tet, and that they are not for the Continues ion of Januarica but for the gamin Well-Indies, that they are all for a Clandelline remote had onabe Coalt of Carpagent, St. Mar-cellary to dellroy it: But hace his Manner and or the Writing is score all known, and has tion esidently defigured for mil-repreferting and our and all its Paris i. 'its not extraone granters from

onch and and ERRATA.

PAG. 10. lin. 2. for from read in. p. 12. l. 2. for Trade read Mony. p. 22. l. 15. for former read late. p. 30. l. 13. for these read their. p. 38: l. 18. read (after many) Women.