

- Robinson Crusoe, origin of that romance, 1012
 Rocket, a missile weapon in India, described, 756, note.
 Roderic, king of Wales, his division of his dominions among his three sons, fatal to the independence of Wales, 390
 Rodney, admiral, his successes against the Spaniards, 358. Takes the Dutch island of St. Eustatia, 361
 Rogers, captain Woodes, dislodges the buccanniers from the island of Providence, and makes a settlement there, 985. His account of Falkland Islands, 986
 Rolle, the Norman, his settlement in France, 437
 Roman Catholics, their liberties enlarged by the British parliament, 376
 Rome, summary of the history of that empire, 48. Arts, sciences, and manners of the Romans, 53. Totally subverted, 55. The present city described, 644
 Romulus, the founder of Rome, review of his life and character, 48
 Roschild, peace of, between Denmark and Sweden, 90
 Rosetta, in Egypt, 819
 Rotterdam, computation of the number of its inhabitants, 472
 Rotunda, at Rome, 610
 Roy, general, his account of the Roman camps in Scotland, 175
 Royal Society at London, instituted, 325
 Russia, its situation, extent, and divisions, 121. Instances of the severity of the climate, 122. Their winter stock of provisions preserved by freezing, 123. Is in general a flat country, 124. Its rivers, ibid. Its animals, 125. Inhabitants, their manners and customs, ibid. Funerals, 127. Punishment of the knout described, 127, note. Modes of travelling, 128. The different nations subject to this empire, ibid. The established religion, 133. Universities, 134. Cities and public buildings, ibid. Curiosities, 136. Commerce, ibid. Army and navy, 137. Government, ibid. Revenue, 138. Orders of knighthood, 139. History, ibid. Geographical discoveries lately made by the Russians, 144
 Ryfwick, peace of, between England and France, 3-1
- S.
- SABA, a Dutch island, 1023
 Sachseverch, Dr. account of his prosecution by the English parliament, 331
 St. Helena. See Helena, St.
 St. Matthew's island. See Matthew's, St.
 St. Thomas. See Thomas, St.
 Salamanca, city of, 597
 Salic law, in France, derivation of the, 436
 Sullivan, a bird, 803
 Salisbury, city of, 232
 Saller, 829
 Salt mines of Poland, an account of, 545. Amount of the revenue from, ibid.
 Salt-petre, great quantities produced in Spain, 620
 Saltburghers, considerable emigration of, into Prussia, 523
 Salvador, St. See Bahla.
 Samos island, and its productions, 664
 Sanderianians, 210
 Sandwich Islands, 1041
 Santa Cruz, island of, 1023
 Santorin, island, 665
 Saone, Upper, department of the ibid.
 ——— and Loire, ——— ibid.
 Saracens establish themselves in the Southern provinces of Spain, 604. Derivation of their name, 795
 Sardanapalus, the last emperor of Assyria, his contemptible character, 45
 Sardinia, dominions in Italy subject to the king of, 620. Computed number of his Italian subjects, 624. General view of his political circumstances, 639. Description of the island of, 649. Family of the present king, 638, note.
 Sark island, 394
 Sarte, department of, 420
 Savages of Pegu, 730
 Savannah, in Georgia, 942
 Savendroog, a strong fortress in India, described, 754
 Savoy, its subdivisions and chief towns, 621. General character of the country and its inhabitants, 638
 Saxe, Maurice count, chosen duke of Courland, 553
 Saxo-Grammaticus, the Danish historian, his character, 89
 Saxony, Upper and Lower, their divisions into provinces, 489, 490. General account of the electorate, 502
 Scanderoon, 676
 Schaffhausen, bridge of, 570. Town of, 574
 Schamanism, account of that religion, 695
 Scilly Isles, their number and situation, 394
 Scio. See Chios.
 Schvonia, its extent and boundaries, 536. Character of the inhabitants, ibid.
 Scotland, its situation, extent, and divisions, 157. Table of shires, sheriffdoms, and principal towns, 157, 158, 159. Climate, soil, air, and waters, 160. Mountains, ibid. Rivers, lakes, and forests, ibid. Appears formerly to have been a woody country, 161. Its mines and other natural productions, ibid. Vegetables and agriculture, 162. Manners and customs of the inhabitants, 163. Language and dress, 166. Their religion, 167. Number of bishopsricks during the times of episcopacy, 169. Learning, &c. ibid. Universities, 171. Description of the city of Edinburgh, ibid. Glasgow, 174. Aberdeen, ibid. Graham's dyke, 175. Agricola's camp, ibid. Pictish monuments, 176. Danish remains, ibid. Kildenny castle, 177. Traces of ancient volcanos, ibid. The Scots not well used in their attempt to settle at Darien, 178. Their trade and fisheries, ibid. Their linen manufactory, 179. Ancient oath taken by their kings, 181. Constitution of their parliament, ibid. Their peers did not form a distinct house, 182. Their courts of law, 183. History of Scotland, 185
 Scyros, 7 D.