

destinies, and who will maintain its best traditions for harmony, service and progress, are:—

Pastor—Rev. P. J. Stackhouse B. D.

Pastor Emeritus—Rev. D. A. Steele D. D.

Church Missionary—Miss Alice Logan

Assistant Pastor—Rev. J. T. Dimock

Clerk—W. S. Porteous

Treasurer—G. B. Smith

Deacons—J. M. Layton, Wm. Read, Samuel Freeman, J. Avard Black, D. W. Freeman, B. J. Lawson, M. M. Tingley, J. A. Christie, and W. W. Black.

Deacons at the out-stations—W. O. Logan, Salem; Alex Clegg, East Amherst; and Amos S. Logan, Amherst Point.

Thus was carried out a programme embracing the essential points, but how much was left out only those know who have had to perform like services. The history of a Church, with its struggles, its plannings, its difficult questions, as well as in its days of victory, can not be placed on paper nor uttered in speech.
