

PREFACE TO THIRD EDITION.

Nearly ten years have elapsed since the second edition of this work was published. In that time the Court has given numerous decisions on questions of jurisdiction and practice; the jurisdiction of the Court has been enlarged by provision being made for appeals from the Yukon Territorial Court, and from the Board of Railway Commissioners; and the Supreme Court Act and other Acts affecting the Court have been revised, the form being materially altered and a few changes made in the substance of these Acts. Moreover, the Rules of Court in use since its organization have been abolished and an entire new set of Rules came into force on September 1st of this year. For all these reasons a new edition of the work is desirable, and even necessary.

The general form of the other editions to which the profession has become accustomed, is followed for this. Special care has been taken to have the work free from errors and to make the index much more useful than heretofore.

C. H. MASTERS.

Ottawa, Oct., 1907.