From General to Particular

It is not hard to buy a gift, at least not now. Before you are spread the goods, and you have but to select and particularize in the light of your friends' tastes and needs. All we can do is to give you a comprehensive, general list, and description where possible, or better still to show you the goods in the store before the crowds of shoppers handle them and buy from them perhaps just what would suit you best.

"The Russian Wedding Feast," Makoffsky's beautiful painting, will be here for this week only. Combine your shopping with keen pleasure by seeing it tomorrow.
