Commercial Summary.

The lighting of our wharves by electricity is to take place to-night.

Reports of crops from all parts of the Ottawa Valley are very favorable.

The GRAND TRUNK Co. are building a fine iron bridge over the Thames at Mitchell, Ont.

The fall wheat in this district, says a Lindsay, Ont., correspondent, has been a total failure, but the spring crops promise to be good.

The promoters of the Toronto and Ottawa Railway ask for an extension of the time for beginning work on the road to May 1st, 1881.

The contract for the St. John, N.B., Exhibition building has been awarded to a Mr. Bond at $11,100.

D. H. DORMAN, of Mitchell, Ont., who was recently burnt out, has resumed the wool-carding business in the shop lately occupied by the defunct A. M. Gibson Manufacturing Co.

A POTTERY has been opened at Fredericton, N.B., for the manufacture of garden vases, flower pots, milk pans, etc. It promises to be a success.

D. MCINTYRE, formerly in the boot and shoe business in Mitchell, Ontario, has opened a grocery store, in the belief that there is something in trade better than leather.

M. MARKHAM, boots and shoes, Lindsay, Ont. has secured a settlement with his creditors on private terms, surrendering his stock, which has since been sold to G. A. Neese of the same place.

The creditors of the late firm of Babb & McIntyre, of Mitchell, Ont., are about to take steps to have the trust deeds which were made by them set aside, that the creditors generally may realize something out of the estate.

The crops throughout New Brunswick are reported well advanced, and the farmers are jubilant. There has been a larger acreage of wheat, by at least one-third, sown this season than ever, and it is looking remarkably well.
